Record Turnout... DENTON COUNTY EARLY VOTING NUMBERS

The Early Voting location for the November 3rd General Election in Sanger is the Community Center at 101 Freese Drive. Early voters can cast their ballots at any of the 46 locations in Denton County.

Denton County set a new record on the first day of early voting after more than doubling its voter turnout last Tuesday from 2016's then-record number.

A total of 35,944 residents cast their ballots in person last Tuesday at one of 46 polling places in the county, according to the Denton County Elections Administration office. This is more than double 2016's first-day turnout of 16,955.

In total, Denton County Elections Administration received ballots from 49,898 people after the first day.

At the Sanger location at the Community Center on 101 Freese Drive, 740 people voted on the first day and 3,547 had voted at this location as of Wednesday morning (Oct. 21st).

On Day 8 of early voting (Tuesday, Oct. 20) in Denton County, 20,956 people voted on this day, compared to 18,908 in 2016 on the eighth day of early voting.

Denton County reached over 200,000 voters at the end of the day on Tuesday, Oct. 20. The total to date for this election was 206,781, compared to 148,063 in 2016.

The county's election website shows there are 565,705 voters registered in the county for the Nov. 3 general election. That's 100,000 more than in the 2016 election, according to the Texas secretary of state's website.

The first day of early voting also saw a record number of mail-in ballots returned by the first day of early voting. The secretary of state's website shows 13,954 mail-in ballots were returned, compared with 5,031 in 2016's first day of early voting.

By the time early voting ended in 2016, 11,026 Denton County residents had voted by mail.

Early voting continues through Oct. 30 for the Nov. 3 general and special elections. Polling hours are 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. For more information, visit www.votedenton.com.

North Texas Fair & Rodeo running smooth

The 92nd annual North Texas Fair and Rodeo wrapped up a much different opening weekend Sunday as it hosted about a quarter of its typical attendance in accordance with state COVID-19 guidelines.

North Texas State Fair Association executive director Glenn Carlton said Sunday afternoon that the fair totaled 13,648 attendees between Friday and Saturday, about a quarter of last year's 54,652 over the first two days. Given the circumstances, he said attendance has been roughly in line with expectations, and that the event projects to be cash positive if the numbers continue.

"We haven't been surprised, it's a different time," Carlton said. "We knew we would be down, but that if we weren't down too much, we would make money on it."

As for the fair's pandemic safety measures, Carlton said staff have been pleased with the response from guests, who are required to wear masks indoors and, when unable to socially distance, outdoors as well. Because the rodeo arena is operating at 50% capacity, he said the fair has had to turn some visitors away, but other attractions have gone similarly to normal years.

Koots Jerky owner Tim Kutas said his Krum-based meat business has attended the fair for nearly 20 years, and that he thinks staff have done a good job in making the event happen.

OBITUARIES...

Melba T. Stevenson

April 15, 1935 - October 16, 2020

Melba T. Stevenson 85 of Sanger went to her Heavenly home Friday night, October 16, 2020. She was born April 15, 1935 in San Saba, TX to Filmore and Mittie Odell Mabry Vaughn. She married Olin Bill Stevenson on September 14, 1952. They were married for 57 years when Olin preceded her in death on February 21, 2010. They were members of the Assembly of God Church. She taught Sunday School and Children's Church for many years. She was retired from Victor Equipment.

Thelma was so special to so many, there are a lifetime of memories and stories to be told as her family and friends remember her remarkable life. She was a faithful woman of God and had a heart of a servant. She was a godly woman who knew hardship, heartache, and disappointment, but it was her faith, prayers, and love for Jesus that kept her strong, kept her grateful for every day. She loved her family so deeply, was so proud of each child, each grandchild, and each great grandchild. She prayed without ceasing over each of them. Spending the night with her, you would often hear her prayers coming from her bedroom. When she got tickled, she would curl her hand in a soft fist, cover her mouth, and her shoulders would shake. Before you knew it, she had everyone in the room laughing with her. Hospitable and gracious, Thelma was the perfect hostess. When you went to her house for a meal, it was a feast; the absolute best food came from her kitchen. She made sure everyone was served before she sat down at the table with us. Serving others was her love language. She was Thelma, Momma, Nanny, she was the heart of her family and she will be missed beyond measure.

The family met at DeBerry Funeral Directors on Tuesday night from 5-7:00 p.m. for visitation. Funeral services followed on Wednesday, October 21, 2020 in the Chapel of DeBerry Funeral Directors at 2:00 p.m.

She is survived by 3 sons, Dolon Wayne and wife Karen Stevenson of Krum, Nolon Dayne and wife Becki Stevenson of Denton, Phillip Ray and wife Karrie Stevenson of Sanger, sisters, Mildred Kattes of Sulpher Springs, Polly Highfill of Houston, 14 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren. Countless friends and "Nanny" to so many others.

Pallbearers were Jacob, Coleby and Chad Stevenson, Steven Anglada, B.J. Lascor, Abel Cobos.

Melba was preceded in death by her parents Filmore and Mittie Vaughn, husband, Olin Bill Stevenson, daughter, Barbara Stevenson Carberry, daughter Sharon Gayle Stevenson, and brother in laws, Hugh Kattes and Chet Highfill.

Financial FOCUS

By Allen Chick,
Edward Jones

Election Day is little more than a week away. As a citizen, you may feel the results will affect many aspects of life in this country. But as an investor, your situation probably won't change after the votes are counted.

No matter who wins, the financial markets may well show some politically driven volatility, but that often happens around elections, and it typically doesn't last long. But what about the longer term? How might changes in policy and new legislation affect your investment outlook?

To begin, keep in mind that many campaign promises remain just that – promises. And even when some of them are enacted, any ultimate legislation may be quite different from what was proposed on the campaign trail.

Still, sometime in the future, we could see election-related changes that could affect your investment strategy. For example, over the years, we've seen many adjustments in the tax rates of capital gains and stock dividends, and it's likely these rates will change again one day. When that happens, you may need to look at the equities portion of your portfolio to see if you want to make some adjustments.

Many other changes, though, are hard to predict. It's possible that future legislation could affect specific industries, either positively or negatively. Such moves could also influence the way you look at certain investments, but if you have a diversified portfolio that contains a broad mix of stocks, bonds and other securities, any actions affecting one particular industry probably won't cause you to significantly adjust holdings invested in other sectors.

Vote for a Solid Investment Strategy

In any case, while it may be a good idea to keep an eye open for things like tax rate changes or how new policies may affect different market segments, your main emphasis, in terms of your investment decisions, should remain on your goals and what you need to do to achieve them.

At least once each year, review your portfolio carefully to make sure your investments are aligned with your goals, whether they are short-term (a new car, a long vacation and so on) or long-term (such as college for your children or a comfortable retirement). Periodically, depending on what's happening in your life and the progress of your investment portfolio, you may need to evaluate your goals to ensure they're prioritized appropriately to help keep you on track toward achieving what's most important to you.

Over time, your goals may change, too. Perhaps you've decided that instead of retiring early and traveling around the world, you now want to turn your hobby into a business. Changing this goal may require a different investment strategy. Or you might change your mind about where you want to live – instead of staying in your home, as originally planned, you might downsize and move to a different area. Your goals may change in many ways, all of which may warrant updating your investment strategies.

Here's the key point: You're the one electing to make these changes. No matter what happens in this or any other election, be sure to "vote" for the strategies that have the potential for a winning outcome.

NT Fair

“They’re doing the best they can to make this work,” Kutas said. “It’s a tradition for a lot of families that come out.”

There’s still time to go out to the fair and rodeo, as it runs through Saturday, October 24. The fair scheduled an impressive lineup of concerts.

Discounted tickets are sold at Sanger’s O’Reilly’s Auto Parts Store.

The bulk of the fair and rodeo takes place outdoors, and Carlton said officials halved attendance so that attendees can practice social distancing.

“In the rodeo arena, the [seating capacity] is 4,000,” Carlton said. “So we’re keeping everything to 50% of that capacity, and on a firstcome, first-served basis.”

That’s only a problem on Friday and Saturday. People might not be able to get tickets for those days, but during the week, the attendance is less.”

The fair has a contingency plan for both weekends. Rodeo events and concerts will be broadcast on a screen set up in the grassy area of the fairgrounds.

“People can bring their lawn chairs and set up on the grass and see the events. Same thing with the concerts,” Carlton said.

During the concerts, fair staff have set up barricades around the main stage, and capacity in that area is reduced to accommodate 877 people.

“Overflow for the concerts will be in the rodeo arena, and we’ll run our concerts on the Fun Zone screen, too, on the lawn,” Carlton said. “Normally, our concert area is about 7,000 square feet. With the addition of the screens, our concerts have 90,000 square feet.”

For food, games and rides, the event is using a payment system that requires patrons to load money onto a wristband — known as Magic Money — at kiosks or through a smartphone app. “We have volunteers stationed at all those kiosks to disinfect them, but you can just load money onto it using our app and not have to touch anything,” he said.

Indians come up short against Aubrey, face Krum

Aubrey had three different rushers score touchdowns and four different runners eclipse 60 yards, as the Chaparrals handed the Indians their first loss of the season in a 48-25 victor last Friday at Indian Stadium, in the district opener for Sanger.

Martavious Hill scored three touchdowns, racking up 99 yards in the process. J.J. Cooke and Braylon Colgrove added a combined 131 yards on the ground for the Chaparrals.

Justin Gibby ended the night with two touchdowns and 64 yards, while Jackson Jennings tacked on another score for good measure.

“That offense does wear people down, but I thought our kids kept playing hard,” Sanger coach Rocky Smart said. “We didn’t give up the 60- or 80-yard runs that people have given up throughout the year. I’m proud of our defense. We bent some, but we never just broke.”

Sanger took the opening kickoff and marched right down the field, inside Aubrey’s 15-yard line, but couldn’t convert on fourth down. On the Indians’ next possession, they gave Aubrey a short field after a fumble.

The Indians coughed the ball up four times in the game

Aubrey took an early 7-0 lead on a 1-yard run from Hill.

Wesley Huber jumped in front of a Rylan Smart screen pass and ran it back 40 yards, giving the Chaparrals a 14-0 lead. It was one of two first-quarter turnovers for Sanger.

“Offensively, we moved the ball, but it was way too much shooting ourselves in the foot,” Smart said. “We’ve done a pretty good job of not doing that this year. Rylan Smart connected with Zach Shepard on a long pass down the middle for a touchdown and sophomore running back Kyle Watts had two long runs, including at 60-yard touchdown run up the middle.

Aubrey eventually took a 41-17 lead into the fourth quarter after Hill scored his third touchdown of the night. But Sanger responded, as Ben Turnbow recovered a fumble and ran it back 62 yards for a score to pull the Indians to within 41-25.

Aubrey had third and 23 yards to go, inside their own 10 yard line, and threw a screen pass that Sanger stopped, but a facemask penalty gave Aubrey a first down. Sanger’s offense would have had the ball in Aubrey territory after a punt, without the penalty. “Penalties will kill you, and they killed us tonight.”

The Chaparrals quickly dashed any hopes of a Sanger comeback on their next drive, as Gibby’s second touchdown put Aubrey up 48-25.

Tallyn Welborn ran for 145 yards in the loss for the Indians, and he has now gone over the 1,000-yard mark for the season.

The loss dropped Sanger to 6-1 overall and 0-1 in District 4-4A Division II play.

Aubrey, meanwhile, improved to 7-1 and 2-0 in district play heading into its bye week.

The game was a lot closer than the final score and the Indians proved they have a good football team. Sanger travels to Krum on Friday for a 7:30 p.m. kick-off. Krum is 0-2 in district and 1-7 overall.

CLOCKWISE (Starting TOP): Ben Turnbow (3) stripped the ball from an Aubrey runner and dashed 62-yards for a touchdown, with a caravan of Indians; Kyle Watts (6) scored a 60-yard touchdown run; Zach Shepard (8) runs for a first down. He also caught a long touchdown bomb; Andrew Lorenzen (56), Avery Walker (4) and Jaxson Olson (32) on defense; Offensiv lineman Nathan Hunt (66) blocking; Indians defense playing tough defense with Aubrey inside the 5-yard line; Sanger quarterback Rylan Smart (11) runs for yardage while Dewey Terreault (88) blocks.

Peaking for district... SHS CROSS COUNTRY CONTINUE TO RUN WELL

The Sanger Cross Country team had a busy weekend with the junior varsity running on Friday morning at the Pilot Point Invitational and the varsity running at Weatherford on Saturday morning. Friday morning saw the junior varsity boys and girls place 2nd in their races behind small school powerhouse Slidell. Junior Mason Gleason led the charge by placing 10th with a new PR of 20:05 over the 5k course. Close behind Mason were freshmen Isaiah Herrera and Khaedyn Lawson with new PRs in 20:14 and 20:16. Junior Max Brown bounced back from a hamstring injury to run a fast 21:58 with a sprint finish against a Slidell runner. Freshmen Eliel Ramirez, Joe Cisneros, and Tristen Rehm all set new PRs with 22:05, 22:06, and 22:07. Freshman Hutch McMillan ran through cramps to a tough 23:15, Andres Nunez ran a 24:22, and Freshman Sam Brown set a one minute PR with a 25:02.

On the Girls side,

Sophomore Annabelle Powell came back from an IT band injury in a big way by placing 5th and running a 14:10 with Freshman Savannah Belcher and Mattie Tutt running new PRs and placing in the top 10 with a 14:46 and a 15:07. Estrella Ontiveros placed 11th and set a new PR with a 15:18. Senior Ericka Ramirez, battling a foot injury, ran a 16:25 and Senior Anna Schmalz ran a 17:02. Aaliyah Lerma bounced back from a fall in the race and was able to run a 17:39.

On Saturday morning

the Varsity were treated with temps in the low 40's and barely a breeze to be found which were conducive to fast times. The varsity girls running in their first and only 5k of the year were led by sophomore Erin Goodfriend placing 3rd and running a speedy 18:58 with sophomore Brenna Slovacek just missing breaking 20 minutes with a 20:01 and placing 8th. Junior Ava Nelms continued her comeback from injury and placed 13th with an impressive time of 20:41.

SHS varsity girls at the start of the Weatherford meet. They placed third overall.
