OBITUARIES...

Ricky Dwayne George

August 11, 1955 - June 5, 2023

Ricky Dwayne George was born in Dallas, Texas, on August 11, 1955, to Curtis Dwayne and Margie Ann (Slovak) George. On Monday, June 5, 2023, he passed peacefully with his loving family at his side.

Ricky grew up in Carrollton, TX, and later attended and graduated school in Louisville, Kentucky. He came to Sanger to work in the plumbing business alongside his uncle, Joe George—a start to a lifelong career in the plumbing industry.

On June 18, 1976, he married Connie Jane Smith in Sanger. This year marks 47 years of marriage. Ricky briefly worked a five-year stint with Brazos Electric and served as a Reserve Police Officer for the Sanger Police Department. He returned to work at Joe George Plumbing until Joe's death in 1995. Ricky continued the business under Joe's name for a while and then renamed it Ricky George Plumbing. He was known far and wide in the plumbing industry and was always in high demand.

When Sanger High School built its first softball field, Ricky was always in sight, working day and night to ensure the field was in perfect condition. Upon completion, this field was named Margie George Memorial Softball Field in honor of Ricky. When the new school was built, he assisted with constructing the new ballfields and kept them in tip-top shape, even after his girls had graduated.

Ricky coached his girls in countless sporting activities and served as Pee-wee Basketball Commissioner during their youth. He and Connie never missed a game and followed their girls wherever they played or participated in extra-curricular events. They have continued this with their three grandchildren.

Ricky loved Coon Hunting and had several Grand Nite Championships. He also had a love for classic cars and enjoyed going to car shows, showcasing his - 1970 Yellow Boss 302. Ricky rebuilt this rusted car from the shell up. He searched for all original parts when making repairs to ensure classic perfection.

Ricky was a hard-working man. He was a perfectionist in all he did. Selfless, caring, and mindful of the needs of others. He was a man of few words unless you asked about cars, coon hunting, sports, his girls or grandkids; then, it could be an hours-long conversation. Additionally, he was a lifelong learner. Always eager to learn something new. If you asked him a question and he did not know the answer, he researched until he found the correct one.

Ricky lived for his family and wore many hats, but his greatest joy in life was being called "Pa" by Lexi, Austin, and Sydney. You rarely saw him without a smile or at least his mischievous grin.

Survivors include his wife, Connie of Sanger; two daughters, Katie Martin and husband Randy of Sanger and Allison Hamrick and husband Chris of Corinth; one sister, Carla Scott of Sanger and three wonderful grandchildren, Lexi Martin, Austin Martin, and Sydney Hamrick. He is preceded in death by his parents, one sister Elaine Polley, and one brother Jack George.

A memorial service will be at 6:00 pm on Tuesday, June 20, 2023, at Bolivar Baptist Church, 6690 FM 455 West, Sanger. Chris Roach will officiate the services.

Arrangements are with Coker Funeral Home in Sanger. Please share a memory or offer condolences to the George Family at www.cokerfuneralhome.com.

Kesha Faye (Sanders) VanHook

August 28, 1981 - June 7, 2023

Kesha Faye (Sanders) VanHook, 41, quietly passed on Tuesday, June 7, 2023, surrounded by her family.

The daughter of Ricky Charles Sanders and Cynthia Denese (Jones) Stroope, Kesha was born on August 28, 1981, in Denton, Texas. She attended school in Sanger and went to the cosmetology school in Denton.

On March 3, 2021, she married David VanHook in Denton, Texas. They made their home in Gainesville and attended church at Marietta First in Marietta, OK.

Nothing was more important to Kesha than her family. She enjoyed it when everyone got together and loved to cook out with family and friends. She even went deer hunting with her dad several times. Her number one person was her "Baby Boy," Hayden, whom she loved with all her heart. She also became a grandmother and discovered a love she never knew existed.

Kesha was a Christian woman with strong beliefs. She was not afraid and was ready when God called her home. There is little doubt that she is walking down the streets of Heaven with her Lord and Savior and her family that has been waiting for her arrival with open arms, wearing a crown of many jewels!

Survivors include her husband, David VanHook of Gainesville; her beloved son, Hayden Minhinnett and his wife Carlee of Marietta, OK; three step-daughters, Alexis Minhinnett of Krum; Kaylee Wilkinson and husband Cody of Pilot Point and Kinley Van Hook and boyfriend Stewart Hodge also of Pilot Point; her mother, Cindy Stroope of Burneyville, OK; her father and step-mother, Ricky and Deborah Sanders of Era; sister Katie Langford and husband David of Little Elm, two brothers Sawyer Sanders of Decatur and Jacob Stroope of Burneyville, OK; Grandparents Freddy Wayne Jones and Barbara Riney of Aubrey, TX; Four grandchildren, Kynzee and Dax Minhinnett, Journey Minhinnett, and Cy Hodge; nieces Skyla Morlatt and Jade Langford; and nephew Christian Morlatt also survive her.
