City to host Public Meeting about Marion Road Reconstruction

The City of Sanger has announced a public meeting to discuss the Marion Road Reconstruction project. Marion Road is located on East Chapman Drive, directly across from the new Sanger High School. It extends from Chapman (FM 455E) to Lois Road. The current road is narrow, with deep ditches on either side, which can put stress on vehicle suspensions and tires. This road also services two large housing developments, as well as townhomes and apartments, and provides access to more rural housing areas northward, from Lois Road to Chisam Road.

It has been patched several times the last five years. The deteriorating road couldn't be addressed more by the City of Sanger with their street rehabilitation projects they started in 2020, because they had to wait for it to be approved as part of the Denton County Road Bonds.

This project is overseen by both the City of Sanger and Denton County and represents one of the city's most significant street infrastructure initiatives. Unlike a simple repaving project, this endeavor involves a complete reconstruction to create a four-lane undivided roadway.

On December 19, 2023, the Sanger City Council approved an Interlocal Agreement with Denton County. This agreement aimed to provide engineering, right-of-way acquisitions, utility relocations, inspections, and construction for Marion Road, which will feature underground drainage from East Chapman Drive to Lois Road. Additionally, sidewalks will be included in the design.

This project is part of the approved Denton County Road Bonds. A brief PowerPoint presentation will initiate the meeting on Tuesday,

OBITUARIES...

Richard Cargile

Richard Cargile, 67, passed away Wednesday, September 3, 2025, in Pilot Point, TX. Richard was born to James Donald Cargile and Loraine Laverne Cargile. Richard married Evelyn Rose Milleson Cargile in Whitesboro, TX on August 8, 2018.

Richard was not just a machinist and car body man; he was a master craftsman whose skills knew no bounds. With an innate ability to create anything he put his mind to, he inspired those around him, especially his son, to follow in his footsteps as a body man. His passion for his craft was evident in every project he undertook, leaving a legacy of excellence and creativity.

Richard cherished the simple pleasures in life. He loved firearms and all things shooting, yearly hunting and fishing with friends, and long walks and drives with his beloved wife. These moments were filled with laughter and connection, showcasing the joy that Richard gave everyone around him.

While he was notorious for forgetting dates, Richard had an incredible gift for being present. He was always just a phone call away, ready to lend a helping hand or offer support to anyone in need. His willingness, paired with his smart wit and playful sense of humor, brought joy to those around him -making every interaction memorable.

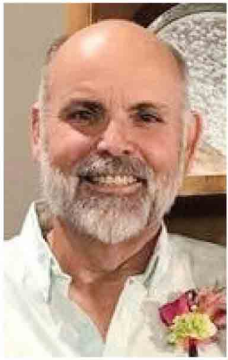

Richard is survived by his wife, Evelyn Rose Cargile, of Pilot Point, TX; mother, Loraine Laverne Cargile of Pilot Point, TX; son, Christopher Cargile and wife Katie, of Sanger, TX; daughter, Brandi Chandler and husband Coby of Pilot Point, TX; daughter, Tera Carnes and husband Jerry of Tioga, TX; step-son, Hunter Nobles of Thackerville, step-son Roman Nobles of Sherman, brother, James Cargile and wife Wanda of Pilot Point, TX; sister, Theresa Loftice of Pilot Point, TX, many grandchildren, nieces, nephews and one great grandchild.

Richard is preceded in death by his father, James Donald Cargile, brother, Paul Leon Cargile, sister Tina Marie Lynch, and brother-in law Ricky Loftice.

In remembering Richard, we celebrate a man who was not only skilled and passionate but also fun-loving. His legacy will live on in the hearts of those he inspired and the memories he created.

No services are currently available at this time. Online condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com.

Sanger Bible Church Joins Thousands of Churches to Participate in Sixteenth Back to Church Sunday on Sept. 21

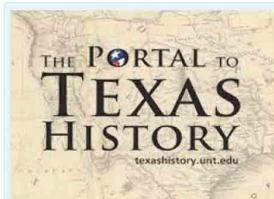

This September, Sanger Bible Church will join with thousands of churches nationwide for Back to Church Sunday. Sanger Bible Church will be inviting everyone in Sanger to come for this special service that will feature music, an inspiring message, and an opportunity to meet their neighbors. Everyone is welcome to attend.

“With the recent statistics and studies showing that loneliness is a real issue in our culture, we want our community to know that our church, and really every church, is here as a resource and a place where people can connect, make friends and find support for when life gets hard,” said Founding Pastor/Teacher Dr. Charles Sanger.

This year's Back to Church Sunday campaign is designed around a “Life is Better Together” theme, encouraging current church attenders to invite friends and neighbors to overcome loneliness and find connection, support, and hope available at a local church. As well as discovering the deeper, spiritual benefits that faith can provide. National Back to Church Sunday (BTCS) movement marks its sixteenth year in 2025 and it continues to gain momentum. More than 5 million Christ followers have participated through 33,000 churches since 2009. It is a day focused on uniting the church to equip and empower their members to be inviters. Eight out of ten people say they are open to visiting church if invited—they are just waiting for an invitation.

“In Sanger, we have upcoming challenges as anticipated growth will more than double our population. We want these new families moving in to be welcomed into our Christian community and our local church. And it starts today,” said Founding Pastor/Teacher Dr. Charles Sanger.

Sanger Bible Church is a Bible-based, non-denominational church located at 13037 I-35, in the white building behind McClain's RV in Sanger, TX. For more information, go to SangerBibleChurch.org/back-to-church or call 940-205-4594 to plan your visit.

Respectfully serving families for generations

Nikki Smith
Financial Advisor

When you plan a trip, you consider not only the destination but also the climate, activities that interest you, transportation needs, anticipated costs, best time to go and coverage for your work, home or pets. It's a holistic approach — looking at your trip from a variety of angles.

It's wise to apply that same holistic thinking when you plan for your financial future — that is, bringing into the picture all elements of yourself.

Here are some things that may affect your financial strategy:

Your views on helping your family — Your decisions about helping your family are clearly going to be a major part of your financial strategy, and this is true at virtually all stages of your life. When your children are young, you'll need to decide if you're going to save money for their college education, and if so, how much, and in what investments. When they're young adults, you may also need to decide how much financial support you're willing to provide for major expenses such as down payments on a new home or a new car. And when you're drawing up your estate plans, you'll need to consider how and when to distribute assets to your children, grandchildren or other family members.

Look at your financial situation holistically

Your personal beliefs — As someone with civic, ethical and moral concerns, you may feel compelled to make charitable gifts throughout your life and then make philanthropy part of your legacy. To accomplish these objectives, you'll want to include gifting techniques in your financial strategy today and your estate plans for tomorrow. Of course, for the estate-planning component, you'll need to work with your tax and legal advisors.

Your purpose in life when you retire — Having a purpose can bring fulfillment beyond financial security. Leading up to retirement, your purpose may involve providing for your immediate family, bringing value to your profession or contributing to your community. When you retire and step off your career path, you're entering a new world of possibilities. How will you define, and live out, your new sense of purpose at this stage of your life? Do you seek to broaden your horizons by traveling around the world? Or spend more time volunteering? Can you pursue hobbies that give you a chance for self-expression? Each of these choices will carry different financial implications for how much you'll need to accumulate for retirement and how much income you will need to take out each year from your retirement accounts, such as your IRA and 401(k).

Your health — Your physical and mental health can play big roles in your financial plans and outlook. On the most basic level, the healthier you are, and the better you take care of yourself, the lower your health care bills will likely be during retirement, which will affect the amount you need to put away for health care. And you also may need to prepare for the costs of long-term care, which can be enormous — in fact, a private room in a nursing home in can easily cost $100,000 per year, according to Genworth, an insurance company.

It can be challenging to weave all these elements into a single, unified vision, so you may want to get some help from a financial professional. But, in any case, be prepared to look at your situation holistically because, when putting together a lifetime's financial strategy, every part of your life matters.

Indians win against Pottsboro, travel to Nevada Community

Homecoming 2025 - The Sanger Indians and Pottsboro Cardinals battled through storms and delays on Friday night, with the matchup ultimately being cut short to just one half of play. Despite the weather interruptions, both teams delivered a high-energy contest

After a one-hour, 20-minute weather delay, the Indians took the field and executed to near perfection. Sanger's offense was flawless, scoring touchdowns on all four of its possessions. Quarterback Reed Sebastian went a perfect 8-for-8 through the air for 85 yards, spreading the ball around effectively. On the ground, the Indians showcased a balanced rushing attack led by Reggie Jones, who carried the ball 15 times for 120 yards and two touchdowns. Bola added 75 yards and a score, while Austin Martin contributed 28 yards and a touchdown of his own.

The Cardinals matched Sanger stride for stride early, scoring touchdowns on three of their five drives. However, Sanger's defense came up with timely stops, highlighted by Jaise Jackson's interception in the end zone and a blocked extra point. Jackson and Chris Ramirez both recorded six tackles to lead the defense, with Jackson pacing the team in solo stops.

When storms forced the game to be called at halftime, the scoreboard read Sanger 28, Pottsboro 21, sealing the Indians' victory.

The Indians travel to Nevada Community on Friday for a 7 p.m. kickoff. Sanger can't sleep on them even though Community lost their first two games to Canton 34-14 and Quinland Ford 49-20. Ford and Canton are both undefeated on the season.

ARTICLE BY SANGER SPORTS CORNER: Go to the Sanger Sports Corner Facebook Page and click on the YouTube link and watch/listen to the game live each Friday night whether you are at home or in the stands at the game. If you don't have Facebook, go search for Sanger Indians football on YouTube.

Sanger Sports Corner proudly named Reggie Jones as the House of Carts Player of the Game! Despite only playing one half, Jones made a huge impact with 15 carries for 120 yards and 2 touchdowns, setting the tone for the Indians' offense. A big shoutout also goes to the entire offensive line, anchored by captain Alex Zuniga, for paving the way and controlling the trenches all night.

Sanger Chamber Monthly Luncheon held at new SHS

The Sanger Area Chamber of Commerce Monthly Luncheon was held at the new Sanger High School campus in the lecture hall, recently. Guests enjoyed delicious pizza, heard exciting updates about the district from Sanger ISD Superintendent Dr. Tommy Hunter, and got a special tour of the high school — led by incredible student leaders!

“We’re so proud of our students for showing off their campus with pride, and grateful to the Chamber members for spending the afternoon with us.”

Also, the Sanger Economic Development staff attended the luncheon at the new Sanger High School. They enjoyed hearing all of the exciting updates Sanger ISD had to share and were especially inspired to walk the halls and see the incredible growth happening within the Career and Technical Education Programs. Sanger EDC is proud to support the SWAG Program, funded through a partnership between the Sanger EDC and the Sanger Education Foundation, Inc., which continues to create opportunities and resources for the students and future workforce.
