LEFT - Answer Part 2: This is the first public water tower in Sanger that was owned by Dan Davis. The tower was built in 1906 by Frank Thatcher and Charlie Henderson. Henderson was a co-owner with Dan Davis. The wooden tower fell in 1910 and was replaced with a 900-gallon wooden and steel tank on Fourth Street.

SHS Softball:
Lady Indians win district title, ranked no. 15 in the state

Sanger's softball team clinched the district championship last week over Burkburnett. The victory helped the No. 15-ranked Lady Indians (27-5, 8-0 in district) wrap up an undefeated District 7-4A title, ahead of second-place Burkburnett (25-9, 6-2).

Sanger last won an outright district championship in 2014. The Lady Indians also shared a district title with Krum in 2015 and reached Round 4 of the playoffs for a second straight year during that campaign but had been unable to return to those heights in recent years.

"We've been working the entire time from when my seniors were freshmen," head coach Toby Kloewer said. "They're getting to that point where they're starting to believe that, 'Hey, it's not like we're chasing the good teams. We're right there with the good teams.' I'm so proud of them for how much work they've put in on all this stuff and getting after it."

Kloewer's daughter, Leala, has been a key part of Sanger's upswing over the last few years. The junior earned All-Area Best of the Rest honors for her freshman season in 2022, then made some key contributions late in the 2023 season after an injury kept her sidelined for a sizable chunk of the season.

Kloewer has put up career numbers thus far in 2024 with 177 strikeouts and a 1.18 ERA in 89 innings pitched as the Lady Indians' primary option in the circle.

She delivered another strong outing last Friday, striking out 14 while allowing four hits, four walks and one unearned run across a complete-game effort.

Sanger wrapped up its district slate with Friday's win and is now set to square off with Springtown (13-13-1) in the bi-district round of the playoffs with details to be announced.

After 14 strike outs against Burkburnett #20 hit another milestone. Congratulations Leala Kloewer.

Abby Chapmond gets a hit against Burkburnett.

Sanger catcher Dalilah Millan tags out a Burkburnett runner.

Sophia Troegle scores on a passed ball against Burkburnett.

SHS Baseball:
Indians beat Burkburnett and Wichita Falls, 8-3 in district

The Indians beat Burkburnett last Friday 8-1 and Wichita Falls Old High 8-6 on Tuesday. Reed Sebastian (pictured right) earned the win against Burkburnett in the district contest.

The Indians move to 8-3 in district and in second place. Against Old High, Kade Phillips got the win with Riley Tarwater coming in to get the save. The offense was lead by Reed Sebastian's two hits and three stolen bases.

Sanger returns home Friday to take on Wichita Falls for Senior Night at 7:00 p.m.
