Sellabration and Safe Spook combined

DATCU and GLENN POLK are hosting the 42nd Sanger Sellabration on Saturday, October 31 from 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. The annual Sellabration was postponed in September because of the pandemic, but will bring a new Halloween theme this year with a Spooktacular Downtown Square. The Sanger Area Chamber of Commerce is doubling up this year, combining their two biggest events. Safe Spook will be from 2-4 p.m. and the Little Mr. and Miss Costume Contest will be held from 1-2 p.m. See the guidelines and registration information on page 4.

All day, there will be craft and food vendors and a fun zone. Also a petting zoo. In the afternoon there will be a cake walk every 15 minutes starting at 2:15 p.m.

Sanger's Lynn Stucky faces Angela Brewer for State Rep

In a highly competitive race, incumbent Lynn Stucky of Sanger and challenger Angela Brewer have each raised more than $300,000 to sway the election in their favor for the Texas House of Representatives.

Stucky, a veterinarian, has held the House District 64 seat since 2016 after former Rep. Myra Crownover retired. He faced no opposition in the 2020 primary election but drew out an opponent in Brewer, an adjunct professor at the University of North Texas running as a Democrat.

House District 64 covers most of the city of Denton, a small portion of Lewisville, Sanger, The Colony, Lake Dallas, Corinth, Hickory Creek, Oak Point and Little Elm.

Candidates took the time to answer the same three questions about the Texas Legislature ahead of the Nov. 3 general election. Here are their responses to the Denton Record-Chronicle:

Lynn Stucky
Age: 62

Born in: Moundridge, Kansas

Employment: Doctor of veterinary medicine, 1983-present

Education: Bachelor's in Science and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine from Kansas State University

Online: lynnstucky.com

The legislative session will start in January. What would you say is the most important piece of legislation or action that should be brought forward, whether it's something new or amending something?

The most important each session is passing a balanced budget. That is the only thing we're required by law to do each session, except this session, the second agenda item is redistricting. Every 10 years, there's redistricting. Other than that, [some] very important items are funding education and ... we [have] to still work on fair property tax assessments and property tax relief. There's a whole number of other items including mental health and foster children, the justice system and civil justice. We'll discuss executive orders. We were out of session when the pandemic hit, and Gov. [Greg] Abbott made a lot of decisions without having the Legislature there, so I'm sure there will be a lot of discussion on what we should do, whether it's an emergency session.

What are the qualities of a good representative? Do you think you have some of those qualities?

The qualities of a good representative is, No. 1, look up the word "represent." We are good communicators with our constituents, that we listen to our constituents. A very good quality of a good representative is being involved in the community, in my case over 37 years of giving back to the community in so many ways — being involved in the chamber of commerce, being involved in your church, being involved in the school system, being involved in the North Texas Fair and Rodeo, giving back and being involved in nonprofits, helping the non-profit organizations, being involved and giving back in agriculture. Agriculture is big in Denton, even though we're still growing. Knowing real estate and owning real estate, paying property taxes. When you own real estate and pay property tax, it's important. And being a small-business owner, employing others. A successful small business not only supports my family but also others'.

Carol Sue Harper

September 17, 1945 - October 11, 2020

Carol Sue Harper, 75, of Sanger, Texas passed away on Sunday, October 11, 2020 in Sanger, TX. She was born in Findlay, Ohio on September 17, 1945 to Frieda (Moore) Laney and George Laney.

Carol spent a good deal of her youth and young adult life living in Indiana, where she married her husband, gave birth to her two daughters and was a full-time homemaker. In 1979, she and her family moved to Sanger, Texas where she lived until her passing.

In Sanger, Carol became an active member of the community particularly as it came to things that pertained to her daughters. She worked as a secretary at Sanger Middle School for many years and volunteered for activities such as 4-H, being the cheerleading sponsor, and commissioning the local baseball/softball program.

After her daughters were grown, Carol became a flight attendant, allowing her to pursue her life-long dream of traveling. She was based in New York for a time and loved the many opportunities to see new places. She then moved into the offices at American Eagle where she became a leader in the flight attendant union, working tirelessly to help protect the rights of her fellow flight attendants.

After many years in the airline industry, Carol retired but later decided that retired life did not suit her. She began work at Winstar Casino where she thoroughly enjoyed her co-workers and the opportunity to interact with a wide variety of new people.

Always a very social person, Carol delighted in the opportunity to visit with people. She truly never knew a stranger and was marked by a very generous spirit.

Carol is survived by her daughters, Christine McGarraugh and husband Cody of Perryton, Texas and Ellen Mossberg and her husband, Dave of Southlake, Texas. Her grandchildren, Chloe McGarraugh, Austin Mossberg, Henry Mossberg, Joey Mossberg and Tommy Mossberg.

She was preceded in death by her husband, David H Harper, grandson, Cole McGarraugh and her mother and father.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held at 1:30 PM on Sunday, October 18, 2020 at the Chapel of Bill DeBerry Funeral Directors in Denton, Texas. Any guests who would like to share a story about Carol will be invited to do so at the service.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Cole McGarraugh Memorial Scholarship at PO Box 1062, Perryton, TX 79070.

Financial FOCUS

By Allen Chick,
Edward Jones

If you're a caregiver, possibly for a loved one dealing with an illness such as Alzheimer's disease, you're probably already facing some significant emotional and physical challenges – so you don't need any financial ones as well. Yet, they are difficult to avoid. What steps can you take to deal with them?

First of all, you may be interested in knowing the scale of the problem. Consider these numbers from the Alzheimer's Association: About 5.8 million Americans ages 65 and older are living with Alzheimer's disease, and in 2019, caregivers of individuals with Alzheimer's or other dementias contributed more than 18 billion hours of unpaid care – worth about $244 billion in services. Furthermore, about two-thirds of caregivers are women, and one-third of dementia caregivers are daughters.

But whatever your gender or relationship to the individuals for whom you're providing care, you can take some steps to protect your own financial future. Here are a few suggestions:

Evaluate your employment options. If you have to take time away from work – or even leave employment altogether – to be a caregiver, you will lose not only income but also the opportunity to contribute to an IRA and a 401(k) or other employer-sponsored retirement plan. But you may have some options, such as working remotely, or at least working part time. Either arrangement can give you flexibility in juggling your employment with your caregiving responsibilities.

Explore payment possibilities for caregiving. Depending on your circumstances, and those of the loved ones for whom you're providing care, you might be able to work out an arrange in which you can get paid something for your services. And as long as you are earning income, you can contribute to an IRA to keep building resources for your own retirement.

Caregivers Must Also Care (Financially) for Themselves

Protect your financial interests – and those of your loved ones. You may well want to discuss legal matters with the individual for whom you are a caregiver before Alzheimer's robs them of the ability to think clearly. It may be beneficial to work with a legal professional to establish a financial power of attorney – a document that names someone to make financial decisions and pay bills when the person with Alzheimer's no longer can. And whether you or someone else has financial power of attorney, the very existence of this document may help you avoid getting your personal finances entangled with those of the individual for whom you're caring.

Keep making the right financial moves. As long as you're successful at keeping your own finances separate from those of your loved one, you may be able to continue making the financial moves that can help you make progress toward your own goals. For example, avoid taking on more debts than you can handle. Also, try to maintain an emergency fund containing three to six months' worth of living expenses, with the money kept in a liquid account. Of course, these tasks will be much easier if you can maintain some type of employment or get paid for your caregiving services.

There's nothing easy about being a caregiver. But by making the right moves, you may be able, at the least, to reduce your potential financial burden and brighten your outlook.

Indians face off with Aubrey to start district

Before the season started Celina was predicted to roll through district play (Aubrey, Sanger, Van Alstyne, Krum), but Aubrey (5-1) upset the Bobcats last week 36-27. Celina is 1-4 but with close losses to state ranked Melissa, Paris and Argyle. The Sanger coaching staff was on hand to witness Aubrey's big win, with Sanger on a bye last Friday. The Indians are 6-0 in non-district with their two biggest victories against Canton and Lake Worth. Canton and Aubrey have a common opponent. Canton lost to Caddo Mills 57-47, while Aubrey fell to Caddo 50-28. It's set up to be a great matchup between Sanger and Aubrey.

Sanger coach Rocky Smart is ready. "We're excited to start district play this week. We have had a great week of preparation coming off of our bye Aubrey runs a wing-t based offense, and they have good team speed. It will be very important for us to make sure we do not give up big plays to their offense. On defense they are multiple, but they base out of the 4-3. They are all around well coached, and we are excited to play this game in front of our home crowd."

Aubrey's coaching staff has several coaches from Sanger, most notably head coach Keith Ivy and Dana Bloedel.

Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m. at Indian Stadium.

SHS varsity volleyball on pace to make playoffs

Sanger's varsity volleyball team just needs one more victory with three matches remaining against Aubrey, Gainesville and Celina to make the playoffs. The Lady Indians beat Gainesville in three in the first half of district play. Sanger has swept Anna for its other two district wins.

Sanger lost to Van Alstyne 19-25, 16-25, 19-25 last Friday to Melissa 22-25, 17-25, 19-25 on Tuesday.

Against Melissa, Sanger was led in kills by Lindzi Thomas with 15 and Carly Schmucker with 7. Four different players had double digits in digs in a solid team defensive effort, according to Sanger coach Scott Montgomery.

What do you think the Legislature should do for Texans amid the coronavirus pandemic in the coming year?

We want to minimize death from the coronavirus. We want to minimize economic impact from the coronavirus. We want to support the Texans

The legislative session will start in January. What would you say is the most important piece of legislation or action that should be brought forward, whether it's something new or amending something?

I think we have to tackle health care first. Looking at the Medicaid expansion, right now Texas gives up about $10 billion a year in federal funding in Medicaid expansion, and we need that money in our health care system. We also have to look at providing more support for county health departments, MHMR, the ways that our communities are working to support health and wellness and making sure the state's doing their part to work toward community health and wellness.

What are the qualities of a good representative? Do you think you have some of those qualities?

I think the two most important qualities of a state representative is responsiveness and problem solving. A state representative should be very present in her community, actively engaged with constituents all the time so she can fully understand that have lost their jobs because of the coronavirus, and we want to get them back to work. We want the economy to come back as quickly as possible. It's very important that we do everything we can to minimize the effects in the future if we have another pandemic. We need pandemic preparedness in the future. We worked very hard during this to help our most vulnerable populations, our members of the Denton State School, our retired people, we want to do everything we can to help those people get through this and do it in a way they come out healthy and have a happy life.

what's happening with constituents and then take that knowledge and apply it to problem solving through policymaking. The ways our communities can be strengthened though policymaking, it's our representatives' jobs to get that done.

What do you think the Legislature should do for Texans amid the coronavirus pandemic in the coming year?

There's some things I hope would be solved before the session starts, but I doubt they will be. I think the next session will have to start with a strengthened mask mandate, calling for all Texans to wear masks all the time in public, and apply ourselves to get control of this virus because there's a lot of economic work to be done, but it cannot be successful until the virus is under control. The first step is take the public health steps to take control, then take a look at the economic impact and see what we can do to support local businesses. A lot of the help that came from the federal government went to bigger businesses and left out our small, locally owned businesses. So the state's going to have to step in to fill that gap. We really need to look, as a state, [at] what can we do to shore up the smaller businesses in our community to make sure they get through the rest of this economic downturn. This pandemic has clearly demonstrated our safety net systems are broken, things like the Texas Workforce Commission and unemployment [benefits] just being a disaster for Texans to try and access in a time of crisis. We need to look at all of our safety net programs, strengthen them, bring them up to date in technology and make sure when Texans are in crisis, the state resources are available and can be used efficiently.
