A Fresh Start to a Healthier You!

BY LYNNE S. SMILAND

Did you make a New Year's resolution to eat in a healthier way? Sanger Public Library is here to help you reach your goals, and would love to help area residents move towards a healthier life!

The library will host a free series of three nutrition classes sponsored by the Texas A&M Agrilife Extension Service. Beginning on Tuesday, February 6th at 6:30 pm. and continuing at the same time on February 13th and 20th, extension agent Catherine Tryon will present free recipes, demonstrate simple nutritious dishes that participants get to taste, and more. Kitchen tools and gadgets are often given away, as well as informative handouts on different food groups. Topics to be covered include which produce is in season (to save money at the grocery store) and ways to "sneak" more fruits and vegetables into dishes you already make.

All ages, income levels, and cooking abilities are welcome to join us, but the library does need to know if you're planning to attend so that Ms. Tryon knows how many to expect. To register, just call the library at 940-458-3257 or e-mail libraryclerk@sangertexas.org, or come by the library at 501 Bolivar St.

District Realignment... SHS in new football and basketball districts

The UIL District re-alignnment was announced Thursday morning and Sanger High School was moved to two new districts (football - 4A Division I) and basketball district (and all other sports). Sanger is back in Region 2 in football in District 7 with Anna, Argyle, Celina, Melissa, Paris, Paris North Lamar for the next two football seasons.

Sanger's old football district (District

4-4A D1 Region I) is now changed to Burkburnett, Decatur, Gainesville, Mineral Wells, Springtown and Wichita Falls Hirchi.

SHS moved to 4A District 11, Region 2 in basketball and all other sports. District 11 is Anna, Aubrey, Celina, Gainesville, Melissa and Sanger.

Argyle, Bridgeport, Decatur,

Krum and Springtown will be in District 8, Region I the next two years in the basketball district.

If you want to project first round playoff opponents, Districts 1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8, 9-10, 11-12, 13-14, 15-16 meet in bi-district. For SHS, in football the top four teams make the play-offs and will face District 8

Denton County burn ban back on Denton County is under another burn ban, and it looks like this one may stick around for a while.

Fire officials say high winds, low humidity and dead vegetation have created the perfect conditions for wildfires throughout the area.

The National Weather Service in Fort Worth expects critical fire weather conditions in and around the county through Monday, according to its website.

County Judge Mary Horn signed the burn ban into effect before Tuesday's Commissioners Court meeting, restricting all outdoor burning of combustible material, such as wood, lumber, leaves and brush. It also restricts outdoor cooking, welding, cutting-torch operations and other outdoor activity involving open flames.

Most fire agencies are preparing additional brush trucks and firefighters for the days ahead. Extra staffing also is needed to fill in for the crews battling large grass fires in rural parts of the county.

Denton County Emergency Services Director Jody Gonzalez said the grass fires appear to be getting larger and more frequent. In these conditions, a lit cigarette or a spark from outdoor work can cause extensive damage.

The forecast shows a 20 percent chance of rain Saturday and for the middle of next week. But it's unlikely to produce enough rain to affect the burn ban, Gonzalez said.

"It would temporarily hold us off [from wildfires] if [rainfall] was an inch and a half," Gonzalez said. "But soon as the dry weather comes back ... that'll put us right back into the danger."

The burn ban generally restricts outdoor cooking with some major exceptions. It doesn't restrict cooking with propane or natural gas in a "complete and full" enclosure. It also doesn't limit cooking with wood or charcoal in a full enclosure, as long as the area 5 feet around the enclosure is cleared of combustible material.

At least one water source needs to be stationed in areas where workers need to use open flames, Gonzalez said.

City and School Elections Muir to run for another term as Mayor

The filing date ends February 16, 2018 to register as a candidate in the school board and city elections. In the school board race, Places 2 and 3 are up for election on Sanger ISD school board. Place 2 is currently held by Ann Marie Afflerbach, who was appointed by the board last year, to replace Dr. Kevin Polk, who passed away. She officially filed last week and remains unopposed as of Thursday morning.

Russel CeBallos is the incumbent for Place 3. He has decided not to continue on the school board.

"I had a conversation with Sara York, who filed for Place 3 last week, and felt that it is time for a change. I feel with a competent candidate like Sara that it is the perfect time for me to step away," said CeBallos.

Sanger High School senior Jackson Sweet and Sarah Peers York are the candidates for Place 3 now.

Candidates can pick up election packets at the Sanger ISD Administration Building at 601 Elm Street from 8am-4pm. For more information, contact Lisa Cody at 940-458-7438.

Thomas Muir has filed to run for another term as City of Sanger Mayor. He did not have any opposition as of Thursday morning. City Council Place 2, held by Gary Bilyeu and Place 4 by Allen Chick are the two city council seats up for election. Bilyeu has already signed up for another term. As of Thursday morning, there were no candidates for Place 4 and Bilyeu didn't have an opponent.

The filing date started January 17, 2018 and ends February 16, 2018 for the city races. Candidates can pick up election packets at the City of Sanger office at 502 N. Elm Street. Call 940-458-7930 for more information.

Financial Peace University provides hope to families in Sanger

More than 4.5 million people have positively changed their financial future through Ramsey Solutions' Financial Peace University (FPU). Created by financial expert Dave Ramsey, the nine-week course provides families and individuals with practical tools to gain control of their finances and set themselves up for long-term financial success. FPU will be held in Sanger at:

Grace Bible Church located at 311 North 4th Street in Sanger. The classes will begin Tuesday, February 06, 2018 at 7:00 PM. Go to www.fpu.com/1056239 for more information or to register.

Ridin' For the Brand Cowboy located at 5926 Farm to Market 455 in Sanger. The classes will begin Friday, February 23, 2018 at 7:00 PM. Go to www.fpu.com/1058911 for more information or to register.

Through common-sense principles, FPU gives people the tools they need to change their behavior and succeed financially. Along with Ramsey Personalities Rachel Cruze and Chris Hogan, Ramsey teaches lessons on budgeting, relationships and money, getting out of debt, saving for emergencies and investing. On average, families who complete FPU pay off $5,300 and save $2,700 in the first 90 days. Following the class nearly 94 percent of those families budget regularly.

"FPU will not only transform the way you handle money, but also your marriage and other areas of your life," says Ramsey. "This isn't a boring financial class. We make learning about money fun and easy to understand so people in every situation can benefit from the information."

An FPU membership includes access to online video lessons, a one year subscription to the Every-Dollar Plus budgeting tool, member workbook for all nine lessons and other additional resources. Go to DaveRamsey.com/FPU for more information.

Bridgeport upsets Lady Indians

The Sanger Lady Indians suffered an upset loss to Bridgeport on Tuesday and dropped their first game in District 9-4A play.

Brooke Rollins and Maci Turkoly were the only Lady Indians to hit double digits in scoring with 10 points apiece.

Sanger will head back home and host Krum at 6:15 p.m. Friday in hopes of bouncing back from the loss. Sanger is still in first place in district with their win over Argyle. Sanger still controls their own destiny if they can beat Krum and Argyle, they will win the district championship. Bridgeport 53, Sanger 29

Indians beat Bridgeport

The SHS varsity boys basketball team won a key district game to keep themselves in the playoff race on Tuesday. The Indians need to win two out of the four remaining district games. And, just one win, if Bridgeport can beat Gainesville. Sanger beat Bridgeport 49-45. A fantastic offensive performance from senior guard CJ Jackson and the defensive pressure from Hank Lemons on Bridgeport's best shooter were the keys to the victory. Jackson was 7-of-10 shooting from 2 point range with a three pointer and he was 3-for-3 at the line. Two of the free throws came in the final seconds of the game to make it a two possessions for Bridgeport. Jackson made three running floaters inside the paint and two times hustled and got two offensive rebounds for put backs.

Sanger ran a box and one against Bridgeport and had Lemons go wherever Andrew Horton went. Horton has scored 40 points twice this year and is deadly shooting deep three pointers. He proved it by nailing a 30 foot contested three at the end of the first quarter and a 35-footer to end the half on a fast break where he dribbled and pulled up. But, Horton only got two more contested attempts behind the arc the rest of the game and missed both. He ended the game with 14 total points, two from the free throw line and he drove inside for three baskets when he got his hands on the ball. Jackson helped double team Horton at times when he got the ball in the front court. Landon CeBallos covered him for a spurt, as well.

Sanger's Trey Henderson had eight points and five rebounds; Jordan Williams grabbed 11 rebounds and scored four points. Lemons had six points, and six assists. Tre Peoples made a key three -pointer and was 2-for-2 at the line. Dabira Ogurwuyi had four points and four rebounds and Payten Vidourek chipped in two points and two rebounds.

Sanger was coming off a 55-46 loss to Decatur on Friday. Wilson Hicks was 5-for-8 shooting three-pointers and scored a game high 21 points for the Decatur to lead the Eagles. Peoples and Lemons led Sanger, scoring 14 and 11 points respectively. Peoples made three, three-pointers while Lemons did most of his damage driving inside and scoring. He was 8-of-10 from the free throw line. He had three assists and two steals. Williams led Sanger with nine rebounds, four steals and 7 points. Henderson had seven rebounds. CeBallos had 10 points.

7th 'A' Girls Basketball wins Tourn.

The 7th grade A took first place on Saturday beating both Celina and Denison. They beat Celina 45-25 and Denison 54-16. High scorers: Lexi Martin and Karliegh Monden scoring over 15 points each, followed by Page Cooper and Carly Schumcker scoring over 10.

(Alvarado, Carrollton Ranchview, Dallas Carter, Dallas Hillcrest, Dallas Hutchins, Dallas Pinkston and North Dallas.

For basketball, volleyball, softball, baseball - SHS new District 11 faces District 12 in the first round of the playoffs - (Dallas Carter, Dallas Hillcrest, Dallas Hutchins, Dallas Lincoln, Dallas Pinkston, Dallas Roosevelt and North Dallas).

Sanger High School head football coach Cole Ford was upbeat on his cell phone, three hours after the announcement. “I am excited to compete in our new district against some teams we have not played regularly. Our district will be top to bottom a very competitive district.”

Coach Ford has the non-district games for the next two years. Sanger will play Plainview, OK in week one, Springtown for game two, Bridgeport will be the third week and Mineral Wells for week four. He won't know until next week about home and away games. Since SHS is in a seven team district, bye weeks will be drawn by each of the seven schools at a district meeting. That means one school will have a bye each week during district play. Coach Ford plans to release the schedule next week, which will have home and away games and the bye week for Sanger.

Sanger is one of the smaller schools in Class 4A Division I. See high school enrollment figures on this page for both divisions.

Coach Layne Boxell, who has the Indians in position to fight for a playoff spot this season in basketball sent via text - “Realignment is always a fun time. Lots of things change and you typically gain and lose schools to compete against. We obviously lost some very good teams (Argyle, Decatur, Krum, Bridgeport) but we go into a district that has some good teams as well. I look forward to playing and competing if 11-4A for the next two seasons.

Mr. SHS Pageant

The Mr. SHS Pageant was held on Saturday at the Sanger High School Auditorium. SHS seniors Jackson Sweet, Samuel Stroud, Luke Pennington, Katz Higa, Jake Galbreath, David Wright, Landon CeBallos, Carr Ritzel, Patrick Blount, Kai Tillinghast, Eli Wilson, Bryson Bassinger, Landry Spence and Dillon Sickich, were the contestants. They were escorted by SHS juniors - Jessica Walters, Maddie Donaldson, Lexi Renshaw, Stevey Newman, Tessa Moore, Bebe Dutton, Kenzie Turkoly, Caylee Smith, Sophie Grubbs, Tatum Bowden, Kali Hall, Lauren Kinser, Kaylen Lee and Caroline Bounds. Money raised from the pageant goes towards the SHS Prom. Announcers were - Tatum Whitewood, Tait Moore and Hannah Langley. The winner was Jake Galbreath. The funniest line of the night was Jackson Sweet's impersonation of Donald Trump. He promised if he won the pageant he would build a wall around Sanger High School and make Argyle pay for it. All contestants, escorts and announcers did a great job and it was a fun and eventful evening.
