VOLUME 9, NO. 7

400 Bolivar Street, Suite 311 in Historic Wilfong Building - Sanger, TX 76266

Thursday, January 28, 2021

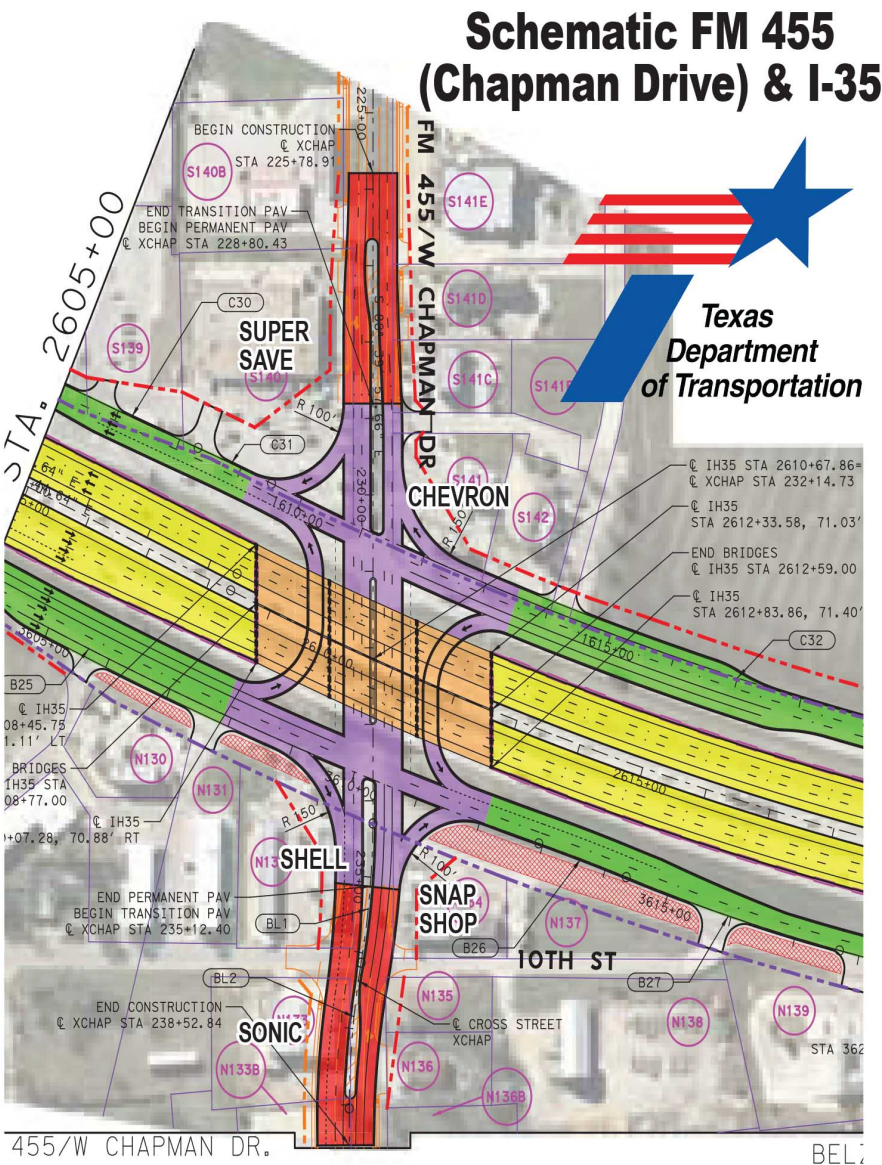

Snap Shop convenience store and gas station will be closing for good in February of 2021. The fuel tanks will be removed the first week of February and with the building coming down sometime thereafter, according to the owner of the property. The TxDOT expansion of FM 455 and I-35 Right Of Way goes through the fuel tanks and front parking lot of the business (as seen in the schematic below). The Shell gas station closed last month, across the street, because of the TxDOT widenings.

Affordit Tires and Wheels has been affected as well. They have been behind Snap Shop for nearly 10 years, but they will remain open, as they move to a new location at 300 S. Stemmons (just south of Stephen Baker Memorial Field).

Owner Jimmy Hill said this week, they should be in the new location February 1-2, 2021.

The owner of the building of Snap Shop and Affordit said they will reevaluate the redevelopment of the property after the completion of the widening of FM 455. He said they do not have any specific plans developed at this point.

Snap Shop was one of the first convenience stores in Sanger. Most locals remember Gary and Betty Lynch as a staple in the hometown business which they sold several years ago. They served breakfast and lunch for the customers and there was always good conversation in the store. It was also the only place to get minnows, fishing supplies and hunting and fishing licenses.

Jimmy Hill, owner and operator of Affordit Tires & Wheels in Sanger will be moving to a new location February 1-2, 2021 to 300 S. Stemmons (located just south of Stephen Baker Memorial Field).

Bill was born in Rome, Georgia on December 3, 1932 to Lloyd and Amy Lee. The family later moved to Anniston, Alabama where Bill graduated from Anniston High School. Soon after graduating, Bill joined the United States Air Force. After serving 4 years, Bill entered college at The University of Texas at El Paso where he completed his B.A. degree. While he worked on his bachelor's degree, Bill and his first wife, Sara Lee, were the first cottage parents at Lee and Beulah Moor Children's Home in El Paso, where they cared for up to 18 boys at a time in their cottage. After college graduation, his first career position was with General Motors in El Paso. He was then recruited by Texas Instruments of Dallas and then later worked for General Dynamics. He played softball for most of his life until age 80. He pitched a wicked softball and received accolades from his fellow team members and fans in the stands.

Bill married Vicki Lee on July 3, 1980. They had known each other from singing in the choir at First Baptist Church in Arlington, TX. Later, they reconnected at a Christian singles mixer and were married 6 weeks later. They have raised a family together and been each other's constant companion for over 40 years. They assembled a beautiful blended family. Bill and Vicki have been active members of Fielder Church in Arlington for 28 years. They both have had a passion for singing in the choir, and went out into the community sharing their love of music with older adults in nursing homes and memory care facilities. ### Dorcyale Kay McClure

January 3, 1948 - January 18, 2021

Dorcyale Kay McClure, 73, died at her home in Sanger, Texas on the morning of January 18, 2021. Dorcyale was born January 3, 1948 in Maryville, Missouri, the oldest daughter of Glade F. and Venita Ilene (Carroll) Sickels. Dorcyale grew up on the family farm near Athelstan, Iowa. She attended Kindergarten through 5th grades at the Athelstan School. After the school district reorganized to Bedford Community Schools, she attended 6th grade in Blockton, Junior High in Conway, and High School in Bedford, Iowa.

Dorcyale loved music and started piano lessons when she was 16. She was one of the accompanists for the High School's Messiah performance in December 1967. Dorcyale graduated from Bethel College in Mishawaka, Indiana in 1972, earning a B.A. in Music Education.

In 1973 she moved to San Antonio, Texas to continue her schooling. Instead, she took a job with a large newspaper and worked with music in several different churches.

Dorcyale married Don W. McClure on January 28, 1978 at a Lutheran Church in San Antonio. His love for music and incredible keyboard talent drew them together. They moved to Beaumont-Orange-Port Arthur area in Texas where she worked with computer data for the electric utility company. She and Don worked in many churches together as organist and choir director.

They moved to Lake Dallas, Texas for 14 years where they continued part time music work in churches along with other jobs. In 1996 they purchased a home in Sanger, Texas. Dorcyale worked in a variety of jobs including Payroll Manager at Campbell-Taggart, Receptionist at an Optometrist office, a Paraeducator at Selwyn Schools, Senior Secretary of Consumer Sciences at Texas Women's University, and substitute teacher in the Krum School District, all the while involved in church music ministries.

Dorcyale also had a love of reading and loved books. She acquired an amazing home library! She enjoyed helping at the Sanger library and donated many books there. In 2014-2015 she took Library Science classes at TWU and sang in a Women's choir. She has been a member of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church since 1995 and recently served as treasurer for Daughters of the King—the women's ministry that she dearly loved.

Dorcyale loved animals. One of the great joys for her and Don was rescuing dogs and cats. They had many through the years. Her beloved dogs—Kyle and Belle, have now been re-homed to wonderful owners who will care for them the rest of their lives. She also loved horses and volunteered at a ranch which offered horse therapy to children.

Dorcyale is preceded in death by her husband, Don, in 2015, her father in 1994, and her mother in 1978.

Dorcyale is survived by her sisters: Rita Young (Gary), of Omaha, Nebraska, and Ruth Winkler (John Park) of Watauga, Texas; her uncle R.C. Carroll (Marlene) of Sarcoxie, Missouri, her Mother-in-law, Lillian, of Corpus Christi, Texas and her brother-in-law, Chris (Donna) of Odem, Texas. She leaves behind four nieces—Karlene Hamilton, Glenda Hamilton, Joy Winkler, and Rebecca McClure Bryant, one nephew—Nathan Winkler, several great nieces and nephews and a great-great nephew—all of whom she loved dearly!

A virtual "Celebration of Life" Worship is being planned. You may get the link through St. Barnabas Episcopal Church or on the CaringBridge site. Online condolences may be made at www.cokerfuneralhome.com.

In lieu of flowers, you may make memorial contributions to St. Barnabas Episcopal Church, Denton. Or because Dorcyale gave to many charities, give to the charity of your choice in her memory; then let us know (fruthwinkler@gmail.com) so that we can gratefully acknowledge your gift.

March 7, 1936 - January 23, 2021

Bobbie Jean (Endicott) Trietsch, 84, of Sanger, went home to be with her Savior on Saturday, January 23, 2021.

Mrs. Trietsch was born on March 7, 1936 in Houston to Jack Ernest and Mattie Annetta "Nettie" (Freeman) Endicott. She spoke often of her family time growing up in Bellaire and of her beloved little yellow dog named Cheesie. She graduated in 1953 from San Jacinto High School in Houston and attended TWU and UNT. She was married to Theodore "Ted" E. Trietsch on March 3, 1956 in Gainesville; he died on June 7, 1984. She became a devoted wife and mother spending hours after a full day's work helping on the farm and sewing, crocheting, canning and cooking for her family. Bobbie was very active in church at Blue Mound United Methodist. She was a lay preacher, sang in the choir, active in Bible study and volunteered in the Kairos Prison Ministry for twenty years. Bobbie could do just about anything and excelled at several jobs including being a receptionist and accounting clerk at the Denton State School for eight years, secretary at the TWU chemistry department for nine years, secretary at Denton High School for twenty-three years, where she also volunteered at DHS sporting events and for many school programs as chaperone. She decided she was not ready to retire after DHS, so took a job as receptionist at Union Campo for two years, receptionist for Russell Newman for nine years and worked as a concierge and safe deposit attendant for DATCU before retiring a second time.

Bobbie is survived by her daughters, Patricia "Patti" Lenette Trietsch Temple of Denton, Karen Ann Reynolds and her husband Sam of Sanger; sons, Michael Edward Trietsch of Sanger, Timothy Gene Trietsch and his wife Martha of Sanger; sixteen grandchildren, Michael Anne Mahoney and her husband Todd, Walter Trietsch and his wife Charlette, TJ Trietsch and his wife Amy, Veleta Olpin and her husband Kasey, Alyson Lozada and her husband Victor, Conner Temple and his wife Katie, Teddy Reynolds, Jason Reynolds and his wife Sarah, Jennifer Reynolds; seventeen great-grandchildren; two great great-grandchildren; many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and siblings, Mary E. Groves, Jack E. Endicott, Jr., John E. Endicott.

A visitation will be held from 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM Thursday, January 28, 2021 at Mulkey-Bowles-Montgomery Funeral Home, 705 N. Locust St., Denton. The funeral service will be held at 10:00 AM Friday, January 29, 2021 at Blue Mound United Methodist Church, 8421 North I-35, Denton, TX 76207. ## Financial FOCUS

By Allen Chick, Edward Jones

During the COVID-19 pandemic, many of us have been forced to work from home. But once we've moved past the virus, many workers may continue working from home. More than one-third of companies with employees who started working from home now think that remote work will stay more common post-pandemic, according to a Harvard Business School study. This shift to at-home work can affect people's lives in many ways – and it may end up providing workers with some long-term financial advantages.

If you're one of those who will continue working remotely, either full time or at least a few days a week, how might you benefit? Here are a few possibilities:

Reduced transportation costs – Over time, you can spend a lot of money commuting to and from work. The average commuter spends $2,000 to $5,000 per year on transportation costs, including gas, car maintenance, public transportation and other expenses, depending on where they live, according to the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis and the U.S. Census Bureau. If you are going to work primarily from home, you should be able to greatly reduce these costs. Potentially lower car insurance premiums – Your auto insurance premiums are partially based on how many miles you drive each year. So, if you were to significantly reduce these miles by working from home, you might qualify for lower rates.

Remote Work May Offer Financial Benefits

Lower expenditures on lunches – If you typically eat lunch in restaurants or get takeout while at work, you could easily be spending $50 or more per week – even more if you regularly get coffee drinks to go. By these figures, you could end up spending around $3,000 a year. Think how much you could reduce this bill by eating lunch at home during your remote workday.

Lower clothing costs – Despite the rise in “casual dress” days, plenty of workers still need to maintain appropriate office attire. By working from home, you can “dress down,” reducing your clothing costs and dry-cleaning bills.

As you can see, it may be possible for you to save quite a bit of money by working from home. How can you use your savings to help meet your long-term financial goals, such as achieving a comfortable retirement?

For one thing, you could boost your investments. Let's suppose that you can save $2,500 each year by working remotely. If you were to invest this amount in a tax-deferred account, such as an IRA or your 401(k) or similar employer-sponsored plan and earned a hypothetical 6% annual return for 20 years, you'd accumulate more than $97,000 – and if you kept going for an additional 10 years, you'd have nearly $210,000. You'd eventually pay taxes on the amount you withdrew from these accounts (and withdrawals prior to age 59½ may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty), but you'd still end up pretty far ahead of where you'd be otherwise.)

You also might use part of your savings generated by remote work to help build an emergency fund containing a few months' worth of living expenses. Without this fund, you might be forced to dip into your retirement accounts to pay for something like a major home repair.

Becoming an at-home worker will no doubt require some adjustments on your part – but, in strictly financial terms, it could lead to some positive results.

Lady Indians sweep Melissa, clinch district title

Down by two at half-time on Friday, the varsity Sanger Lady Indians scored 27 points in the third quarter while holding Melissa to just six points en route to a 75-52 win that clinched the District 9-4A title on Friday at Indian Gym.

Sanger (16-5, 9-1 district) swept Melissa and it's the first district title since the 2010-11 season.

"Honestly, the only thing we talked about at halftime was defense," Sanger coach Derek Hilliard said. "[Wendy Clemmons] was killing us. If you look at Melissa's shot chart, they had three shots outside, and the rest were her in the paint. We just made adjustments. We told them to back up, make her shoot a tough step-back shot and make the others beat us because she was beating us by herself. And that's exactly what the girls did."

"They were just reading the defense and making good plays."

Clemmons had 16 of her 22 points by halftime but was held scoreless in the third quarter as the Lady Indians rattled off a 17-0 run before Melissa finally put its first points of the second half on the board. The onslaught continued well into the fourth quarter, as Sanger opened that frame with a 12-3 run.

By that point, the Lady Indians had built an insurmountable 71-43 lead.

Bella Ringenberg was an unstoppable force in the paint all night with several offensive putbacks for Sanger while finishing with 20 points. She also had four blocked shots. Carly Schmucker and Chloe Malone weren't far behind with 17 points each. Lexi Martin finished with 13.
