VOLUME 12, NO. 33 400 Bolivar Street, Suite 311 in Historic Wilfong Building - Sanger, TX 76266 July 26, 2024

Downtown Sanger Farmers' Market to be held Saturday, August 3rd from 6-10 p.m.

The Moonlight Market is making its debut downtown on the Sanger Square on Saturday, August 3rd from 6-10 p.m. Do you want to spend your Saturday evening scrolling down the aisles of local vendor tents lit up by twinkle lights, listen to live local artists, and check out the amazing downtown shops and a bar within walking distance? Then join in for a night to remember, which will surely make history for the charming farmers' market. Here's everything you need to know to plan your visit to the 1st annual Moonlight Market.

History of the Market
Currently ranking as one of the top five farmers' markets in Texas, the Downtown Sanger Farmers' Market opened March 2023 with 21 vendors. Today, it hosts over 35 vendors 1st and 3rd Saturday and 3rd Sunday at the Stephen Baker Field. The location is intended to be temporary until they move downtown year-round. Amber Whitworth, one of the founding members, explained, "My goal is to connect the local producers to the community and bridge the gap between farm and table, enriching the community's understanding and appreciation of where their food comes from while supporting the hardworking farmers, ranchers, and artisans who sustain our local economy and ecosystem." This special evening market provides shoppers with a chance to enjoy the market in a new way while allowing new customers a chance to shop later hours.

What can you find at the Market?

With over 45 vendors, you will be able to purchase a variety of products from locally grown produce, beef and chicken, baked goods, cold-pressed juices, coffee, candles and more. A full vendor list will be provided on their website and Facebook page next week.

Visitors to the Farmers Market will find:

- Local farm-fresh produce
- Local honey
- Local organic produce, including fruits, vegetables, and herbs

- Local whole-grain and sour-dough bread
- Milk from grass-fed dairy cows and yogurt
- Native Texas plants and flowers
- Natural grass-fed meats, including beef, lamb, pork, and poultry
- An assortment of pickled and canned items
- Preserves and jams
- Texas salsa

Enjoy delicious freshly squeezed lemonade, snow cones, or tacos from Oscar's Street Tacos with many more delicious goods to choose from.

Moonlight Market Schedule

- Saturday, August 3rd, 2024 from 6:00 PM to 10:00 PM
- Live Music from Harper John beginning at 8 pm to 10 pm

You can also RSVP on the Downtown Sanger Market Facebook page for event updates. It's free to attend, and you can enjoy delicious food, face painting, and live music, all while supporting your local businesses and farmers.

Sanger Area Historical Society Thumb Drive Fundraiser (loaded with 67 Sanger yearbooks)

The Sanger Area Historical Society is excited to announce the Sanger School (all grades) and Sanger High School Yearbook Archive Thumb Drive Fundraiser. They have ordered custom made thumb drives and loaded them with 67 Sanger yearbooks. The yearbooks are PDF files that have been run through Optical Character Recognition (OCR), so that they are searchable. They are offering these thumb drives to anyone who makes a donation of at least $20 to the Sanger Area Historical Society ($25 if we have to mail it to you). All proceeds will go toward funding the digitization of the rest of the Sanger ISD yearbooks that we have been able to collect or borrow. "We appreciate the support of @sangerisd giving us permission to scan and fundraise with the scans, so that we can end up having all yearbooks from Sanger ISD history available online for free. They will have these thumb drives available at the Museum on Saturdays and at their meeting on August 6th.

They have a new website, which will be part of what they show everyone on August 6th. If you are interested in checking it out in advance here is the link:

On August 6, 2024 the Sanger Area Historical Society will host it's first public meeting since before COVID, it has been several years so this meeting will be all about what the Historical Society has been doing to preserve and share Sanger area history, and how you can access Sanger history resources from home. The meeting will be at 6:30 PM at the Sanger Public Library. The public is invited.

Lucille Sparkman Hammons

October 12, 1949 - July 20, 2024

Lucille Sparkman Hammons, 74, of Sanger, passed from this earthly life into the loving arms of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on July 20, 2024, in Denton, Texas. One of six children to the late Urial S. and Mabel Edith (Park) Sparkman, Lucille was born a twin on October 12, 1949, in Denton, Texas.

Lucille was raised and attended school in Denton until her family moved to Sanger. She began her freshman year at Sanger High School and graduated from the Class of 1968. It was here that she met the love of her life, David Hammons. They were married on September 18, 1971, at the Gribble Springs Baptist Church in Sanger, where Lucille had attended since the age of twelve. She and David made their home and raised their three children in Sanger. This year marked 53 years of marriage.

Lucille loved the Lord and read her Bible daily. She highlighted and made notes of verses that spoke to her, and she was even known to highlight verses in her children's Bibles that she felt might help them in their own journey with the Lord. She was a Christian woman and lived it every day of her life. Lucille loved life. She never met a stranger. She had a smile for everyone she encountered and the sweetest and kindest disposition.

Lucille had several hobbies, including reading and sewing, and was accomplished in painting. Additionally, she loved being outdoors, riding horses, fishing, hiking, playing golf with her sisters, and spending time in Colorado with her family. Lucille loved her family fiercely. Her time spent with each of them brought her great happiness, but her greatest joy came when she became "Nenah" to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Left to cherish her memory are her husband, David of Sanger; two sons, Stephen Hammons and David Hammons, both of Sanger; daughter, Amanda Frye, and husband, Coley of Alvord; three sisters, Cecille Sparkman (her twin) and Jane Sparkman, both of Spiro, OK and Ruth Ann Hammons of Spanish Fort, TX; one brother, Dan Sparkman of Saint Jo. Seven grandchildren, Jonathan Hammons and wife Kate, Holly Hammons, Katie Hammons, Cadence Hammons, James Frye, Stephen Hammons, and Carl Frye, along with four great-grandchildren, Alaina, Weston, Christopher, and Colton, also survive her. Preceding her in death are her parents and brother, Dudley Sparkman.

A visitation for Lucille was held from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm on Tuesday, July 23, 2024, at Coker Funeral Home in Sanger. Funeral services were held at 11:00 am on Wednesday, July 24, 2024, at the Springs Fellowship (formerly Gribble Springs Baptist Church) at 6933 FM 2164, Sanger, TX 76266. Reverend Dan Sparkman officiated the services. Michael Sparkman, Dan Clifton Sparkman, Milton Sparkman, Jonathan Hammons, Stephen Hammons, James Frye, and Carl Frye served as pallbearers.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations in Lucille's honor go to the Gribble Springs Cemetery, c/o Zina Townley, P. O. Box 487, Ben Franklin, TX 75415, or the National Parks Foundation at nationalparks.org.

Services were under the direction of Coker Funeral Home in Sanger, Texas. Please make online condolences at www.cokerfuneralhome.com.

How strong is your emergency fund?

You can't predict financial emergencies — but you can prepare for them. To do that, you can build an emergency fund to pay for unexpected expenses, some of which may be sizable. Without one, you might be forced to dip into your investments, possibly including your retirement accounts, such as your IRA or 401(k). If this happens, you might have to pay taxes and penalties, and you'd be withdrawing dollars that could otherwise be growing over time to help pay for your retirement.

In thinking about such a fund, consider these questions:

How much should I save? The size of your emergency fund should be based on several factors, including your income, your spouse's income and your cost of living. However, for most people in their working years, three to six months of total expenses is adequate. Once you're retired, though, you may want to keep up to a year's worth of expenses in your emergency fund — because you don't want to be forced to cash out investments when their price may be down, and you may not be replenishing these accounts any longer.

How can I build an emergency fund? Given all your normal expenses — mortgage, utilities, food, transportation and others — you might find it challenging to set aside some extra money in an emergency fund. But you do have opportunities. If you're working, you could set up a direct deposit so that part of your paycheck goes directly into your emergency fund. You could also save a portion of any extra income you receive, such as bonuses and tax refunds.

Where should I keep the money? An emergency fund has two key requirements: You need to be able to access the money immediately and you need to count on a certain amount being available. So, it's a good idea to keep your emergency fund in a liquid, low-risk account that offers protection of principal. For this fund, you're less interested in growth than you are in stability. But because interest rates have recently changed, you may be able to get a reasonable return without sacrificing liquidity or safety.

Job change?

Whether retiring or changing jobs, you'll want to know your retirement account options.

There are four potential options for your 401(k) when leaving an employer:

- Leave it in your former employer's 401(k) plan, if allowed by the plan.
- Move it to your new employer's 401(k) plan, if you've changed employers and your new employer plan allows for it.
- Roll the account over to an individual retirement account (IRA).
- Cash it out, which is subject to potential tax consequences.

We can talk through your financial goals and find the option that works best for you.

Sunny's Thoughts

Today my thoughts lead me to ask a question. Do you hear what I think I'm saying? Crazy question, serious search for an answer. So many of life's rough spots are made rougher by the fact that we are probably not communicating what we think we are. Today, when we try to tell something to somebody we have three major road blocks: our definition of words, their definition of words and the changing mean of words.

The first obstacle, the meaning of our words, can be what brings complications to communicate. We usually know what we mean, but and that is a very big word, but sometimes we have far too much faith in our ability to get over the point we are trying to make. We are comfortable in where we are coming from and we, usually, have an adequate if not brilliant, vocabulary. If that is the case then what exactly is the problem? Yep, there is a problem and it is a big one. We know what we mean, we use words for which we have a clear picture but the person we are speaking to has their own level of understanding of meaning. This is most especially true when we are trying to describe feelings and emotions. Or sometimes it can be in the case of our description of something. The other day I was asked by a delivery person for concrete direction to my place because their GPS sent them to an apartment complex in Denton. The first part of the instructions were easy "35 north to the first exit, turn right, turn left at the stop sign", etc. All very clear and precise. Then I had the bright idea of making it easier and said "so when the road veers to the right on you left will be a pecan orchard, when you cross the creek, the road will bear right again and take the drive on the right and be careful because there are many who only use the middle of this road. FYI my drive is one quarter of a mile long and you can't see the house from the road just keep going down the drive." Well, this was clear to me because I prefer to go by landmarks rather than by more specific street names, etc. Well, the delivery person hesitated and said "OK thanks I think". I have to really give him compliments because he ended up closer than he was but This is a minor example of misunderstanding. Not serious just annoying.

Sharing of information, simple or complex, can offer challenges. You think that in this information and electronic driven world that we don't have to worry in the least about giving directions, just use our GPS or App, no problem. I agree but let me just insert here a small question: Has your GPS ever sent you to the wrong place? As for me in my GPS search for the Baltimore Airport I ended up in a quaint little neighborhood in the middle of a snow storm. Go figure and I asked the clerk in the convenience store on the corner where the airport was and all I got was a totally blank look. Lucky for me the person behind me in line gave me simple directions to the airport which was less than 5 miles away. I felt blessed because God had placed this helpful person in a position to help and with the ability to give clear directions.

There are times when we need to share information in other ways. For example, sometimes we need something from someone. When I was very much younger and still at home, I did most of the cooking since my mother was not in good health. I was in the midst of making potato salad and needed the five eggs I had boiled to

What types of emergencies should I prepare for? Your emergency fund could be needed for any number of events: a job loss or early retirement, housing or auto repairs, unreimbursed medical bills, unexpected travel, and so on. But this fund may also be needed to help you cope with other threats. Consider this: In 2023, the U.S. saw a record 28 weather and climate disasters, each of which resulted in at least $1 billion in damages — and often many times this amount — according to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. Depending on where you live, your home or business may be susceptible to tornadoes, floods, wildfires, hurricanes and extreme heat and cold waves. These events can, and do, result in property repair and relocation costs, higher insurance premiums and even price increases for basic goods, such as groceries and prescription medications. One final word about an emergency fund: It takes discipline to maintain it and to avoid tapping into it for everyday expenses or impulse purchases. The name says it all — this is a fund that should only be used for emergencies. By keeping it intact until it's truly needed, you can help yourself weather many of the storms that may come your way.

Thoughts

be shelled. Being the big sister I, of course, I wanted to get my younger sister to do the dirty work of shelling. So, I said "Barbara, I need five eggs on the blue plate where I can use them." Now my sister was not into cooking at all and had not been paying much attention to what I was doing she grumbled a bit and after a few minutes presented me with a plate on which she had broken 5 eggs. I guess you could say there was a bit of a communication breakdown. Maybe at a later date I will share with you how to transport 5 eggs from a flat plate and get them into a more usable container. I assure you that since I was only about ten years old adult logic was not a part of the equation. But that is enough of that.

We have looked somewhat briefly at the difficulties encountered when giving directions of all sorts whether they be in how to get somewhere specific or to do something we need done. Now, let's take a moment to look back over our life. How many times have you said, been told, overheard the following: "because I said so." I don't know about you but my personal experience as a teacher and parent would want me to answer that though I had have heard it used, the phrase was not part of my communication arsenal. But, since I always try to be truthful I would have to admit that I would not be able to give an accurate number. Sometimes "because I said so," is the only truly workable phrase for the situation. If any parent was being forth coming, they would have to admit that the phrase was a major item in the parental communication toolbox. As a child I drove my mother to use that phrase on a rather consistent basis because of my incessant need to know "why." Why carry an umbrella, it's not raining right now. Why can't I eat just 5 more pieces of my Halloween Candy? Why can't I stay up and give Santa his cookies myself? Why do I have to eat spinach ugh just because some other child is starving? Seemingly logical answers do not serve in these instances. Or, I guess that sometimes a more complete answer would just take too long or fly over the mark.

Whether giving directions or trying to explain why something can or cannot be done anytime you share information you take your chances. And if you want to go into more serious territory then what about sharing likes, dislikes, love, hate, disgust, or any emotion. Sharing of my thoughts there will wait for another time. There is a world of communication pitfalls out there just waiting to ensnare us in a swamp of misunderstanding and confusion. To mix my metaphors here that gives me, a communication junkie, food for thought.

But let me close with this much more uplifting thought from Psalm 141:3: "Set a guard over my mouth, Lord; keep watch over the door of my lips". Sending you blessings. Will share more thoughts later.
