More details on Superintendent's emergency powers

Last week the Sanger ISD board members voted 7:0 to delegate emergency powers to Superintendent Tommy Hunter. The Sanger News didn't reach Dr. Hunter or school board president Ken Scribner before press deadline last week.

When reached this week, Scribner said, "This does not allow Dr. Hunter to operate without oversight. As a board member for over 11 years and president for the past 7, no superintendent has ever operated without board oversight. The authorization allows Dr. Hunter to conduct business on minor circumstances without calling a special meeting for the board to vote, waivers for miss school days, appraisals for principals, text book inventory and such. All business that was or will be conducted with this authorization will be presented to the board at the next scheduled meeting. Not at any time, during a pandemic or not would school districts funds be spent or allocated without board approval."

All seven board members were in attendance for the vote last week: Members present: Ken Scribner, Jimmy Howard, Ann Marie Afflerbach, Sarah York, Lisa Cody, Mitch Hammonds, Zach Thompson.

Other school districts have made similar moves amid the pandemic. The resolution granting him such powers will last for 60 days.

When the board passed the resolution on June 8th, the intent of this resolution was to allow Dr. Hunter to conduct school business in a timely manner during the continuing COVID-19 pandemic. Without the passage of this resolution, the school board would have had to call numerous special meetings to approve actions, which needed to be taken by district administration.

During this time period while schools were closed, numerous documents such as waivers for Missed School Day of Instruction, Educator/Principal Appraisal, and Instructional Materials Inventory were submitted to the Texas Education Agency (TEA) on behalf of Sanger ISD. Waivers submitted to TEA require board approval prior to being approved. The resolution passed by the Board of Trustees, allows the superintendent to file such waivers. Once submitted, Dr. Hunter would report all waivers submitted to the Board of Trustees at the next available scheduled board meeting.

"The Board of Trustees still maintained oversight on all actions taken during the COVID-19 pandemic. As superintendent, I would discuss these actions with Board President Mr. Scribner, prior to submitting. The resolution allowed for events to happen in a swift manner, as the reporting requirements during COVID-19 changed rapidly and often. As superintendent I did not submit or take action without the school board having prior knowledge," said Dr. Hunter.

OBITUARIES... Robert Andrew Grundy (Bob)

December 7, 1928 - May 31, 2020

A public memorial service for Robert Andrew Grundy, 91, of Era, is scheduled for 1:00 PM on Saturday, June 20, 2020 at the Era I.S.D. Gymnasium. Private services were held at Era Church of Christ.

Mr. Grundy passed away May 31, 2020 in Era.

Bob was born December 7, 1928 in Gainesville, Texas to Samuel Pollard and Willie Mae (Bratcher) Grundy. He grew up on the Grundy Farm and Ranch in Era, Texas. His great-grandfather homesteaded the land in 1859. A fourth generation Grundy, Bob loved the land and spent every summer on a tractor helping his uncles farm the land and raising cattle. He was very close to his grandmother, whom he lived with, along with his uncle, his senior year of high school. His mother moved to Gainesville and was the County Treasurer for several years.

Bob was nine years old when his dad died. He had an older brother, Sam, a sister, Marilyn, and younger sister JoAnne. His mother was a school teacher and they all had to help with the farm. Bob started to school (grades 1-3) at Buck Creek School. There were several small schools in the country and most were close enough to walk. There was no busing in those days. He attended Era I.S.D. schools from the fourth grade until high school graduation. Bob played all sports but particularly loved football and track. He won the state title in high jump (6'3") his senior year, 1947. Four universities offered him a four-year scholarship. He chose North Texas State University in Denton. They had an excellent track and field program and he could be closer to help his mother. Bob was an outstanding athlete. He won many medals in high school and college. He wore a rabbit's foot around his neck while he high-jumped. It's with his medals.

After college, Bob worked for General Motors in Fort Worth. He was in the National Guard for several years, stationed in Gainesville. He was on security duty one night at the county fair and ran into his high school sweetheart, Ruby Jean Wylie. They were married six months later. Their marriage of 68 years was blessed with five children.

It was always Bob's dream to coach football and track. In 1952, he began his career in Era I.S.D. He coached every sport, taught history, and drove a bus. After four years at Era, he coached at Whitesboro, Boyd, and Sanger. He had a successful coaching career and touched many young lives. Coach Grundy was a father figure to many troubled boys. He had a prayer before every game. Bob lived his faith in God. There was such a love and respect from "his boys" and it has continued through the years. Four years ago, Era I.S.D. built a new track and honored Mr. Grundy by naming the facility after him. Every year, there was a Bob Grundy Invitational Track Meet. His years of teaching and coaching at Era were very special to him.

Bob was a wonderful husband and father. He loved and cared for his family deeply. He especially treasured his five grandchildren.

Survivors include: wife of 68 years, Ruby J. Grundy; son Rex E. Grundy and wife Alice of Era; son Dan A. Grundy of Era; daughter Lisa G. Holubec and husband Jerry of Allen; daughter Betty Claire Wilson and husband Kenny of Gainesville; daughter Suzanne Groesbeck and husband Ted of Frisco; grandchildren: Melissa (Marc), Andrew (Christina), Bobby, and Reid; sister JoAnne Vincent of La Jolla, California; sister-in-law Mary Farmer of Pueblo, Colorado; sister-in-law Rita Young of Era; sister-in-law Betty Woods of Rockwall; sister-in-law Glenda Grundy of Tyler; and numerous beloved nieces and nephews.

Mr. Grundy was preceded in death by: parents Samuel Pollard and Willie Mae (Bratcher) Grundy; grandson Brett Grundy; brother Sam Grundy; sister Marilyn Walker; brother-in-law Walter Vincent; brother-in-law Bill Farmer; brother-in-law Royce Young; brother-in-law Jim Woods; brother-in-law Delmo Wylie; and brother-in-law Weldon Walker.

Memorial contributions may be made to Era Cemetery Association.
You may sign the online register at www.geojcarroll.com.

Bobbie was born in Brownfield, Texas to Lee and Zelma (Melton) Bartlett. Sadly, Zelma passed when Bobbie was only two. In 1937, Lee married Faye Strickland, and together they raised Bobbie and her siblings in Meadow, Texas on the family farm. Bobbies work ethic and incredible character were developed by her loving and hard-working parents.

These traits served her well as she attended Texas Tech and later entered the work force. Her banking career spanned four decades, beginning as a teller at Brownfield State Bank and ending in retirement as Vice President of Western National Bank in Lubbock. Bobbie served as Officer in many organizations such as American Business Womens Association, American Bankers Association and Lubbock Business Womens Association. She was the recipient of numerous achievement awards throughout her career.

Bobbie met her much-loved husband, Tom, when he swept her off her feet on the dance floor the night they met. They were blessed to spend many years together until Toms passing in 1997.

Bobbie enjoyed spending time with friends and family, playing cards and games, eating out and shopping. She was a woman of faith and principle, who instilled values in us such as loving and serving God, the importance of hard work, kindness, service to others, generosity and love for family and country. Above all, Bobbie was a mother and grandmother. She will live forever in our hearts.

Bobbies spirit will live on through her daughter, Debbie Lewis and her wife Melissa Pittillo of Denton, their children Michael and Rylee Lewis-Pittillo, and all the family and friends that knew and loved her.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father, her son Mike Lewis, her sister Martha Pitts, and brothers Lee Bartlett Jr. and James Bartlett.

Financial FOCUS

By Allen Chick,
Edward Jones

Ensure You're Properly Insured

There's certainly been plenty of volatility and uncertainty the past few months, but one aspect of your financial picture has probably remained stable: your need for insurance. And since National Insurance Awareness Day is observed on June 28, now is a good time to review your overall insurance coverage to determine if you and your loved ones are well-protected.

You might be surprised at the lack of protection among your fellow citizens. Less than 60 percent of Americans have life insurance, and just about half of those with insurance are underinsured, according to LIMRA, a research organization.

Of course, you might think the reason so many people don't have insurance is because they don't need it. But just about every age group can benefit from life insurance.

If you have a house and a family ... Your insurance needs are obvious: If something happened to you, could your mortgage payments still be met? How about your car payments? Doctor's bills? College for your children? Even if you have a spouse or partner who earns a decent income, your family could still have big trouble paying its bills if you weren't around.

If you're young and single with no family responsibilities ... If you're in this group, why would you need life insurance? For one thing, perhaps you owe money together with someone else – you might, for example, be a joint debtor on a mortgage. If you passed away, your co-debtor would be responsible for the entire debt. And just because you don't have family responsibilities now, it doesn't mean you never will. If you have a family history of serious health issues, which may eventually affect you, you could have trouble getting life insurance later, or at least getting it without paying a lot. Now, when you're young and healthy, the coverage is available and may be more affordable.

Your children are grown and you're retired ... If you retire with debt or have a spouse dependent on you, keeping your life insurance is a good idea, especially if you haven't paid off your mortgage. Plus, life insurance can be used in various ways in your estate plans.

Even if you recognize the need for life insurance, though, you may be uncertain about how much you require. Your employer may offer insurance, but it might not be sufficient for your needs. And, perhaps just as important, if you leave your job, voluntarily or not, you'll likely lose this coverage. If you purchase a private policy, what's the right amount? You might have heard you need a death benefit that's worth seven or eight times your annual salary, but that's just a rough estimate. To determine the appropriate level of coverage, you'll need to consider a variety of factors: your age, income, marital status, number of children, and so on.

Still, even after you've got the right amount in place, it doesn't mean it's set in stone. You should review your coverage regularly, and especially when you change jobs, get married or remarried, have children or experience any other major life event.

Life insurance should be a key part of your overall financial strategy, along with your retirement accounts and other investments. Make sure you're properly covered – for today and tomorrow.
