VOLUME 10, NO. 15
400 Bolivar Street, Suite 311 in Historic Wilfong Building - Sanger, TX 76266
March 24, 2022

The Right of Way for the TxDOT widening of I-35 left this shopping center, just south of McDonald's without enough parking. And, two businesses closed, the Liquor Store and Donut Shop and the Dental Office moved behind Subway on the other side of the highway. Domino's Pizza, Nail and Spa and Anytime Fitness will remain at this location and the other half the the shopping center will be demolished to make more room for an additional parking lot.

WHY I SUPPORT THE BOND

Grant Bowles of the Long Range Facilities Committee presented the bond proposal to the Sanger ISD board earlier this year. The board voted 7-0 to send the bond proposal to the voters. He provided this "Letter To the Editor" about the May 7 SISD Bond Election. He is the pastor of First Baptist Church in Sanger.

I grew up in Sanger, and that city of my childhood is different in many ways from the one that my family and I returned to back in 2015. Despite those differences, the heart and the values of Sanger remain the same, and the city that helped shape me in so many good ways has done the same for my children. I love this town because it is filled with what I call "real people". When I get the chance to meet newcomers to our city, what almost all of them tell me is that they chose to move to Sanger because of the small town values they found while visiting.

Like the rest of North Texas, Sanger is growing and will continue to grow. We can try to fight it, but it is a fight that we will lose. The only real option as I see it, is to manage the growth and lead it in the direction of maintaining the values and ethics that have made Sanger a great place to raise a family for generations. Developers have discovered Sanger, contracts have been signed, and they are making plans to build more homes than we can imagine. With those homes will come families, many of them young families with children. Actually, those families are already coming. Sanger has the second youngest population in Denton County. The city of Denton is the only city with a younger population due to the universities located there.

We should be asking ourselves how we can welcome the newcomers to our community and help them learn and show them through our actions what makes Sanger such a great place to live and raise a family. One of the first and most meaningful ways we welcome new families is through their experience with our schools. I am a second generation graduate of Sanger High. My mom graduated with 13 in her class. I graduated with 77. My daughter graduated with almost 200 in her class. We moved her to Sanger in October of her senior year, and she loved her time in this community. My son spent 8th grade through 12th here in Sanger. Both were welcomed and made to feel part of Sanger from the day they arrived. Our students are already leading our community in welcoming newcomers. Let's join them.

Last Summer, I received an invitation to participate in a School Facilities Planning Committee. This marks the third time I have been involved in the process. From our first meeting I noticed a difference in the process. We covered much of the same material as previous groups, but the attitude and approach was different. There was a genuine effort made by Dr. Hunter and the staff recently hired

Joe Don Winkle

September 18, 1937 - March 14, 2022

Joe Don Winkle, of Sanger, Texas, passed peacefully into the healing arms of his Savior on March 14, 2022, at the age of 84, surrounded by his family. Joe was born on September 18, 1937 to Claud and Valta (Rogers) Winkle in Franklin County, Texas. He was a faithful Christian and a member of First Baptist Church Denton.

Joe graduated from Winnsboro High School in 1955. Upon high school graduation, Joe attended Texas A&M University and was a member of the Corps of Cadets. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from Texas A&M University in 1959. Joe was a proud Aggie, and anyone who knew him knew he bled maroon.

After college, he was commissioned into the United States Air Force as a Second Lieutenant. He was stationed in Dayton, Ohio at Wright Patterson Air Force Base. From there, he was stationed in Reykjavik, Iceland where he led a team at an important military fueling base. He concluded his time in the Air Force based in Dover, Delaware, but remained as a Captain in the Reserves.

On August 28, 1959, he married Jerrie Smith of Little Hope, Texas. They were married for over 62 years. They enjoyed spending time with their grandchildren and great-grandchildren, working at their farm, and traveling together - especially to Alaska where they spent several summers together.

In 1962, Joe began his professional career. He was an Infrastructure Engineer for Housing and Urban Development in Fort Worth, Texas and Alexandria, Louisiana. Much of Joe's career was spent doing disaster relief working with the Office of Emergency Preparedness, currently known as the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). In 1966, Joe began working at the FEMA Region 6 Office on Loop 288 in Denton. Joe and Jerrie raised their family in Denton over the next 17 years. His career at FEMA took him to Washington D.C. as the Deputy Coordinator for their Natural Disaster Program. Joe and Jerrie returned to Denton in 1988 when he became the Region 6 Deputy Administrator for the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Dallas office. Joe retired from EPA in 1994.

Nothing made Joe happier than spending time with his family. His family was always his first priority. In his free time, Joe enjoyed spending time outdoors. His first love was quail hunting and training his hunting dogs. He also enjoyed any kind of hunting, fishing, golfing, and watching football - especially the Texas A&M Aggies and Dallas Cowboys. Joe always had an assortment of favorite snacks in his hunting backpack, most of which included delectable junk food to satisfy his sweet tooth!

Joe was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife Jerrie (Smith) Winkle of Sanger, daughter, Tanga (Winkle) Tidmore and husband Guy of Flower Mound, son, Greg Winkle and wife Ann of Sanger. He is also survived by his grandchildren: granddaughter Heather (Winkle) Libick and husband Steve of Aubrey, grandson Evan Winkle and wife Macy of Denton, and grandson Mason Tidmore of Flower Mound. Joe's pride and joy were his four great-grandchildren: James and Sadie Libick and Lawson and Copeland Winkle. In addition, he is survived by his dear sister Patricia (Winkle) Holley of Winnsboro.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Alzheimer's Disease Research at: brightfocus.org/stopAD

The family will hold a memorial service at the Winkle family farm at a later date but received friends and family for a visitation on Saturday, March 19, 2022 from 2:00-4:00 pm, at 461 Ridgecrest Place, Sanger.

He was a member of the Denton Elks Lodge and worked at the University of North Texas in the Security Department. Charles loved his family and was affectionately known as "Pops" to his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife Shirley of Krum; one son, Charles Dennis Dempsey, Jr. and his wife, Trina of Slidell; two daughters, Monica Bell of Justin and Judy Bell and her husband, Cato Allen, also of Justin. Colin John Nickerson

Colin John Nickerson passed away unexpectedly on 3/13/22 at the age of 47. Colin was a man that you would only have to meet once to know that he was truly one of a kind. He had a love for his family that was undeniable. He adored his wife Mari and his daughter Stella and referred to them as "his ladies". Colin and Mari's love for each other was special and simply beautiful. He was a loving and devoted father to Stella and they had a special bond. Stella's favorite words he spoke to her were "You are more beautiful every day." Included in their family were their golden retriever Mia and their cats Fuzzy and Bonita. Colin had a passion for muscle cars, anything with an engine, and rescuing animals: especially cats. He was an entrepreneur who was not afraid to take risks. He cared deeply for his friends

Bond

by the school board to include our community, and to listen to the citizens of Sanger. Long before our committee began its work, the effort to include the community had already been started. They listened to students, parents, school staff and community members in meetings before gathering the formal group that would propose a bond to the school board. The topics we covered in our meetings included demographic projections (hint: we are growing and will continue to experience growth), school financing (boring topic, but very informative), our current facilities and projected needs. We toured the school facilities, and our eyes were opened to some glaring needs.

We then got down to working on putting together a package that would meet the most pressing needs of our students, which meant certain facilities would need to be addressed immediately. As the committee developed the bond package according to the needs we observed, something very interesting occurred. 100% of the members of the committee voted to approve each project contained in the bond. We also voted 100% against potential projects that did not get included. We were informed by the committee facilitator that this was not a common occurrence. Because of the work put in by its members and the quality of information shared with us by the district, the committee unanimously agreed on what to include. I completed my time serving on the committee excited about the future of Sanger ISD.

Over the next month, you will hopefully receive an invitation to attend a meeting in your neighborhood, at a local restaurant or coffee shop to discuss the specific items in the bond package. At these meetings, a school representative will be there to discuss the particulars of the bond package, only facts and figures. There will also be a representative from the committee to share their experience and their perspective on the upcoming election and its importance to our community. When you receive an invitation, make room on your calendar to attend. This election on May 7 is crucial to the future of Sanger.

Over the next few weeks, articles will appear in this newspaper outlining the individual projects and why they are necessary.

Did The Dalton Gang Come to Sanger?

Submitted by the Sanger Area Historical Society
Article written by Idaleen Scheu Fuqua

In the autumn of 1919, the United States had just emerged from World War I and the edge of the "Roaring Twenties" was looming. Sanger was enjoying the post-war boom as three banks spied on one another from the intersection of Bolivar and Third Streets. The E.L. Berry bank to become the First National Bank (now offices for the City of Sanger operations), would become the oldest financial institution in town. The bank originally operated as the Farmers and Merchants Bank and was located on 4th Street in the Dunn Building and faced westward toward the Sanger city park. E.L. Berry and partners bought this bank and in 1905 it was chartered with the name of First National Bank and was then located at the Bolivar and Third Street location. The other two banks in that section of downtown were not to exist after several years.

Fred Scheu, Santa Fe Station Agent in Sanger, working the "third trick" (shifts with the Santa Fe were called "tricks"). The railroad station depot was open twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week; they never closed and were very busy. Fred was well-known around town and always walked to work as there were few automobiles around.

On this particular day in 1919, Scheu and his wife were rooming at the Gary Rooming and Boarding House at the corner of Bolivar and Fifth Streets (home was originally owned by Dr. Ervin Howard, and his son and wife operated as a boarding house for many years after Dr. Howard's death. The two-story home was located just behind the current Sanger Museum but no longer exists.) As Harry Rucker, the station agent for the midnight trick arrived to relieve Scheu at the depot, he advised he thought something strange was going on "uptown" and to be careful walking home. He said he thought he saw some men go behind the Berry First National Bank building.

ing House

Scheu began his walk on the north side of Bolivar Street toward the boarding house westward from the railroad station passing the two-story wooden hotel known as the Burchard Hotel located next to Wilson's Lumber Yard (now a vacant building at the northeast corner of Bolivar and Second Streets). As he crossed Second Street to the Sartin Store, the wagon yard was next to the Jones Picture Show (now known as Bolivar Street BBQ. Yes, this building was originally a movie theater.), and passed the bank building on the northeast corner (now where the attorney office is located). Across this intersection of Bolivar and Third Streets, there was an electrical wire strung across the intersection with a single lightbulb glowing in the night. Scheu saw someone standing just in front of the bank and as Scheu crossed the street, the man in the shadows lit a cigarette and attempted to act as normal as possible.

Fred had never seen the fellow in front of the bank building before, and as he crossed the intersection, he tipped his hat and passed by the man, kept on walking past the Dunn Building later to be the Gentle Hardware Store (burned in later years and now a vacant lot). Scheu crossed over to the front of the Wilfong Building and began running on the south side of Bolivar Street to the rooming house; just one short block away. He knocked on the door of Buck and Eula Gary's room; Buck dressed in a hurry, grabbed his gun, and gave one to Scheu. There was no phone service in this year of 1919 which would not happen until the mid-1920s, so the two men made their plans; they would walk a block north on Fifth Street to the corner where the Berry family resided (which is now called the Pink House just across from the Sanger Park and now a residential home). Mr. Berry retrieved his gun and the gang of three crossed over the park and ran south behind the Wilfong Building to George Hughes' home to get more support. And away they went, headed north up 4th Street.

These four men crossed Bolivar Street on Fourth Street and past Sullivan's Furniture Store and Funeral Parlor, and ran down the alley off Fourth Street behind the building that would lead to the back of the bank building. What they found upon arrival in the alley were "warm calling cards" left behind by several horses, and in the still night, the air was strongly odorous. As they entered the bank building, the vault inside the bank was still intact and the floor littered with cigarette butts and the smell of whiskey lingered.

No one ever saw who came to town that night except for Fred Scheu and Harry Rucker. They only saw the one man in front of the bank in dim light, but became apparent an attempted bank robbery had been in place at the time. The men must have realized they had been discovered in their task and left the premises.

Several days later an elderly lady living one block north at the corner of Third and Elm in a two-story home (no longer standing), went to her cellar to retrieve some of her canned goods and found several of the jars broken and parts of the contents had been eaten, and the rest littered the dirt floor with cigarette butts and empty liquor bottles. Her cow barn was littered with horse manure and bales of hay scattered as proof someone had been in town, but for what reason no one knows other than perhaps the attempted robbery of the bank. Rumors persisted this was the Dalton Gang who was famously known as bank robbers, but no one will ever know exactly who made this failed attempt to rob the Sanger bank.

Fire Marshal Casey Welborn

Meet Casey Welborn. He was Lieutenant and was recently promoted to Fire Marshal. Casey was born in Colorado. When he was just three years old, his father, having been from Denton, decided to move his family back home. They settled in Sanger, and Casey has called Sanger home ever since.

Welborn graduated from Sanger High School in 1995. He married his wife, Tammy, in May of 1998. They have four boys Ryan (30), Dillon (25), Griffin (21), and Tallyn (19). And two grandsons (age 5 and 2). The Welborns are a very close family. His three oldest children all reside in Sanger and Tallyn, currently away at college, looks forward to graduation so he can move back home.

I asked Casey if he always knew he wanted to be a fireman. Most people might find it a strange profession considering his father was a Police Officer in Denton County. Finding out that he was passionate about public service, firefighting, in particular, was a bit of an accident.

Welborn was very passionate about playing baseball. While away at college, he got hurt and was unable to play. For him, the absence of baseball in his life made college less than appealing.

He was home visiting and attending a football game where he found himself wrapped in conversation with his uncle, the Chief of the Volunteer FD in Sanger at the time, who sensed Casey might have been struggling with his future, and suggested that he should volunteer with the FD. From his first volunteer day, he fell in love with firefighting.

It would be 6 years before Welborn would join the Sanger Fire Department as paid staff. He served as a volunteer on his off days of working for a private ambulance company as a paramedic. When the position opened for a full-time firefighter/paramedic, he applied and got the job. Since then, Casey has obtained multiple certifications.

He started with Driver, Instructor, Fire Officer, Inspector, Command & Control, and Plans Examiner.

It may seem like a natural progression for Casey to now be the City's, Fire Marshal. However, it wasn't a role that he actively sought out. Casey loves the operations side of the job. Being in the field and leading his team gives him the greatest pleasure. However, the most important thing for Welborn is the growth of the Sanger FD. The FD needed an onsite, 8 AM – 5 PM Fire Marshal. When Chief Pennington approached Casey about the position, his respect for Chief and his love for the Sanger FD, made the decision an easy one. He still gets to go out into the field for large events so, for him, he is living the best of both worlds.

So, what is next for Fire Marshal Welborn? With the I35 expansion project, more growth is expected. He plans to continue his career through retirement serving the residents and visitors of Sanger. Additionally, he would like to see the addition of one, possibly two new fire stations down the line.

What about his plans for ten years and beyond? For Casey, family is everything. He fully expects that he and his wife will stay right here in Sanger. Having the grandbabies close by is not something he is ever willing to give up.

SHS varsity track takes third at Van Alstyne Meet

The Sanger High School Boys Varsity Track & Field team took the top spot of the 4x200-meter relay at the Van Alstyne Panther Relays, before Spring Break. The 1-minute 30-second finish beat out the second and third place schools by a fraction of a second in a thrilling victory.

The students who earned bragging rights around campus with the win are Chandler Bowland (also placed 5th in 100-m), Logan Lewis (6th in 400-m), Colby Lewis, and Steven Bush. Each member of this relay squad executed their leg of the race with precision for the photo finish.

The varsity team also finished second in the 4x100-meter relay. Runners Kollin Shumate, Steven Bush, Kyle Watts, and Colby Lewis sprinted to a 43.66-second finish in that race.

Outside the relays, Steven Bush gave Sanger a victory in the 200 meters with a 22.9-second time. Like the 200-meter relay, this was a squeaker win by less than a second between Bush and the second-place runner. Teammate Kyle Watts also finished sixth in this race to help Sanger's overall status.

Christian Cortez of Sanger's JV team won the 1600-meter final. His long strides over the span of the race gave him over a second difference ahead of his nearest opponent.

Rylan Smart secured the Discus final with a stunning 159-foot throw. The throw was over 20 feet farther than the second and third place athletes.

Sanger's Varsity team also secured top three finishes in the 1600-meter Finals (Jose Rojas), 3200 (Christian Cortez), Shot Put (Rylan Smart), Aiden Beukema (110m Hurdles), and High Jump (Austin Shackelford).

Never far behind, the JV team's Phawensky Cockerell (also 6th in Triple Jump), Adam West,

Two Pitchers Work Together In No-Hitter As Sanger Indians Varsity Defeats Anna

Sanger's two pitchers didn't allow a single hit, beating Anna 4-0 on Friday. Corbin Bulger induced a fly out from Collyn Swindell to get the last out of the game.

Sanger opened up scoring in the second inning, when Chandler Bowland singled on a 3-2 count, scoring one run.

Bowland was on the pitcher's mound for Sanger. He overcame a rough first inning after allowing a walk and hitting two batters to load the bases. The righty got out of the inning, allowed no hits and zero runs over six innings, striking out nine. Bulger came in to close things out in the bottom of the seventh to complete the combined no-hitter and record his fifth save in five opportunities.

Major Bilyeu went 2-for-3 at the plate to lead Sanger in hits. Bilyeu stole three bases.

What looks like a funnel cloud, on the right side of the trees, formed Monday evening west of Bolivar. Thankfully, the storm wasn't as strong as anticipated. There was a destructive tornado in Jacksboro that did major damage to the high school gym.
