Steven Russell Dietz

February 7, 1976 - November 17, 2025

Steven Russell Dietz, aged 49, of Krum, Texas, passed away on November 17, 2025. Born in Denton, Texas, on February 7, 1976, to Teddy and Kathy Dietz, Steven was a devoted husband to Kathy and a proud father to his two daughters, Kali and Bella.

Family was everything to Steven, and he worked tirelessly to create a loving and supportive home. His infectious laughter and positive spirit brought joy and warmth to everyone he encountered. Steven's passion for his faith and his community was evident in his dedicated involvement in local churches. Over the years, he contributed his time and talents to Midway Church and Rock Creek Church, where he formed lasting friendships and inspired others with his genuine spirit. Most recently, he attended Valley Creek Church with his family, touching the lives of many with his story of faith and fostering a sense of belonging among the congregations.

Despite the struggles he faced with anxiety, Steven transformed his experiences into a powerful testimony of resilience. He openly shared his journey, encouraging others to seek help and support. His courage in confronting these challenges served as an inspiration to many and highlighted the importance of faith, family, hope, and healing.

Beyond his role as a family man, Steven had a passion for sports, movies, music, the outdoors, and the Buffalo Bills, which he pursued with enthusiasm. He had an uncanny ability to connect with people, making friends wherever he went.

Steven is survived by his wife, Kathy Dietz of Krum, their two daughters, Kali and Bella Dietz, his mother, Kathy Dietz of Sanger, Texas, and his brother, Callan Dietz and his wife, Chantel, of Ponder, Texas. They will forever cherish the wonderful memories they created together. He was preceded in death by his father, Teddy Dietz.

A private graveside service was held in honor of Steven on Monday, November 24, 2025, in Denton, Texas. The family invites you to join them in celebrating Steven's life on Friday, November 28th at 6pm at Rock Creek Church located at 2860 W. First St. Prosper, Texas 75078. Friends and family are invited to attend and share stories and memories as we honor his legacy.

Steven Dietz will be deeply missed but never forgotten. His love, kindness, and laughter will live on in our hearts.

Edward Lee Beaver

February 25, 1963 - November 21, 2025

Edward Lee Beaver, born February 25, 1963, passed away peacefully on November 21, 2025 at the age of 62 at his home in Denton, Texas.

As a teenager, Eddie moved to Texas with his family. He later returned to South Carolina to attend Winthrop University in Rock Hill, before settling back in Texas after graduation. Eddie went on to build a long and successful career with Sally Beauty Holdings, where he served as a dedicated desktop engineer for almost 40 years. On April 2, 2011, Eddie married the love of his life, Romona. Eddie was a loving husband whose devotion and kindness were the foundation of his family. His life was enriched by the joy of companionship, the laughter of shared memories, and the strength of unwavering love.

One of his greatest joys was being a proud grandfather. He embraced this role wholeheartedly, offering guidance, warmth, and unconditional love. He also had a love of all things sports and found excitement in cheering for his favorite teams, especially when his youngest grandson was by his side.

Eddie also held a deep love for his church family. His faith was a guiding light in his life, and he found strength, fellowship, and purpose within his congregation. He will be remembered for his devotion, his willingness to serve, and the way he uplifted others with kindness and encouragement.

Eddie's legacy is one of love, loyalty, and faithfulness to the Lord. His generous, gentle, and calming spirit touched everyone around him. He will be remembered not only for his passions but for the way he made others feel valued and cared for.

He was preceded in death by his parents Voigt and Mary Frances (Moore) Beaver; brother, Kim Beaver; and sister, Susan Campbell. He is survived by his wife, Romona Bullock Beaver of Denton, Texas; his brother William Beaver (Sherrie) of Charleston, South Carolina; his sister Jessica Beaty (Robert) of Rock Hill, South Carolina; step-daughter Valarie King of Portland, Texas; step-daughter Michelle Veloz (Agustin) of Sanger, Texas; and his grandchildren Ashton and Ella King, Madi and TJ Gill, and Ethan Veloz, and many extended family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, November 29, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. at Sherman Drive Church of Christ in Denton, Texas. Family and friends are invited to gather in fellowship, honoring his faith, his love for family, and the joy he found in life.

Franziska K. Torres

September 27, 1938 - November 20, 2025

Franziska K. Torres, affectionately known as Francis, was reunited with her beloved husband, Jaime Torres-Rolon, in the Kingdom of Heaven on November 20th, 2025. She passed peacefully at the age of 87, in Denton, Texas, with her daughters by her side.

Born in Bamberg, Germany on September 27, 1938, to Kordula Knobloch and Joseph Durcholz, Francis grew up in wartime Germany, developing the strength and resilience that defined her adult character. It was in Germany that she met Jaime, a spirited young American soldier, with whom she would share her life. Their courtship was a cherished memory for Francis, often shared with close friends and family.

In 1961, Francis and Jaime married and relocated to the United States, where they began a family. Francis embraced American culture, quickly learning English and proudly earning her American citizenship. Their family grew to include five energetic children, whom Francis fervently reared and nurtured. As a devoted wife and mother, she mastered cooking and managed a busy household, often single-handedly while Jaime was deployed overseas.

After Jaime's distinguished military career, the family retired in Lawton, Oklahoma, where they spent many quiet years. Over time, they welcomed grandchildren, and Francis became the altruistic matriarch that will remain her legacy. Nostalgic traditions, laughter, and lavish meals were shared in their pristine home, cherished by her family.

In May of 2021, Jaime preceded her in passing. Francis spent her remaining years with her eldest daughter, Patricia, and her husband Bill Hanson in Sanger, Texas. She enjoyed knitting, crossword puzzles, and her guilty pleasure, The Game Show Network. She maintained her feisty, independent nature throughout her life, even gaining a reputation as a candy bandit.

Francis is preceded in death by her parents, Kordula Knobloch and Joseph Durcholz, and her brother, Karl Heinz Knobloch. She is survived by her five children: Francis Torres of Hemphill, Texas; Patricia and her husband Billy Hanson of Sanger, Texas; Roberto Torres of Chattanooga, Tennessee; Rebecca and her husband Stephen Butler of Navarre, Florida; Sharon and her husband Daile Vance of Lafayette, Georgia; her dear niece Elfriede Knobloch; thirteen grandchildren; and ten great-grandchildren.

Viewing and visitation was held at DeBerry Funeral Directors from 10:00AM to 11:00AM, followed by funeral services on Tuesday, November 25, 2025. Francis was laid to rest at Boliver Cemetery.

Financial Advisor

Fear of fraud is universal. Today, 77% of Americans are concerned about fraud and identity theft when managing finances online, according to 2025 research from Edward Jones and Morning Consult. Even more striking: 26% of Americans have personally experienced financial fraud.

While fraud is often associated with the elderly, millennials are among the hardest hit. Over one-fourth (28.6%) of millennials reported experiencing financial loss due to scams — more than any other generation, per 2024 research from PYMNTS Intelligence.

Here are common scams targeting millennials:

Cryptocurrency – Promises of guaranteed profits or zero risk are red flags. Watch for Ponzi schemes and fake crypto launches.

Payment apps – Watch for scammers impersonating someone you know or spoofing app emails to steal credentials.

Online shopping – Beware of fake sites or ads selling trendy items at unrealistic prices.

Millennials and financial fraud: Protecting yourself in a digital world

Student loan forgiveness – Scammers who offer debt relief for a fee just want your info or money.

Government – IRS calls or texts about an unclaimed refund or an unpaid tax bill are scams. The IRS only contacts taxpayers in writing by U.S. mail.

Job and gig – Avoid unusually high-paying online jobs requiring upfront purchases.

Romance – Requests for money in online relationships are a major warning sign.

Stay vigilant. Learning to spot fraud matters. Be suspicious of these warning signs: unexpected windfalls, like contests you didn't enter; pressure to pay immediately or upfront; requests for payment via gift cards, wire transfers or crypto; or receiving a check and being asked to wire part of it back.

Also look out for spelling and grammar errors in emails and texts, fake social media profiles, requests to access your computer to "fix a problem" and unsolicited contact, especially from a bank, government agency or tech support.

Protect yourself. Some practices can help you stay safe. Use strong, unique passwords and different ones for different accounts. Use multifactor authentication (MFA) wherever possible; it can block unauthorized access. And before entering personal or financial information on a website, make sure the URL starts with https:// and shows a padlock icon. This means it's a secure site.

If you think you've been scammed, don't beat yourself up. Scammers are professionals who exploit human psychology. Anyone can fall victim. Here's what to do:

Act quickly. Contact your bank or payment company immediately to try to stop any payments in progress. Change your passwords and usernames right away if they may have been compromised. Run an antivirus scan on devices that might be affected.

Report the crime. File a report with the Federal Trade Commission at reportfraud.ftc.gov.

For online fraud, also file a complaint with the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center (ic3.gov). These agencies can provide resources and connect you with law enforcement.

Protect yourself going forward. Monitor your credit reports regularly and consider freezing your credit with the credit agencies. Learn more ways to protect yourself at consumer.ftc.gov.

The digital world offers incredible convenience but also opportunities for criminals. Stay alert and know how to respond to help protect yourself and your financial future.

Sanger ISD Opens Nominations for Wall of Honor

Sanger ISD is proud to announce that nominations are now open for the Sanger ISD Wall of Honor, a distinction recognizing individuals who have made a lasting impact on the district, its students, and the broader community.

The Wall of Honor celebrates alumni, retired staff members, and community members whose leadership, dedication, and service have contributed to the success of Sanger ISD.

Eligible nominees fall into one of three categories:

- Student Alumni – Graduates from 15 or more years ago who have achieved outstanding success and serve as role models for current students.
- Retired Staff – Former teachers or administrators with at least 15 years of service and retired for a minimum of five years.
- Community Members – Patrons, leaders, or benefactors who have significantly contributed to Sanger ISD's success.

Deadline for nominations: First Monday in March Nomination Form found at: <https://www.sangerisd.net/about-us/wall-of-honor>

Supporting materials such as letters of recommendation, awards, newspaper articles, or photographs may be submitted with the nomination.

Indians knocked out of playoffs by no. 1 Carthage

Sanger Indians LB Creedon Boerner during the coin toss against Carthage. Kelvin Edwards (0), Cade Ross (11) and Jett Surratt (9) representing Carthage as captains.

Carthage, the no. 1 team in the state in Class 4A, Division I and defending state champions extended their postseason success last Friday against Sanger at Forney High School. They breezed past the Indians to the tune of 63-35. Considering the Bulldogs have won ten contests by more than 21 points this season, Friday's blowout was nothing new. The Bulldogs led 56-14 at halftime.

It was another big night for KJ Edwards, who rushed for 185 yards and four scores on only six carries. Thanks to that big game, he is now up to 21 rushing touchdowns on the season. Another player making a difference was Jett Surratt, who threw for 201 yards and four TDs while completing 90% of his passes.

They were just one part of a punishing run game: Carthage was unstoppable on the ground and finished the game with 348 rushing yards. That strong performance was nothing new for the team: they've now rushed for at least 152 rushing yards in seven consecutive matchups.

Despite the loss, Sanger still got an impressive performance from Reggie Jones, who rushed for 246 yards and three touchdowns while picking up 7.5 yards per carry. Jones is crushing it when it comes to rushing yards: he's rushed for at least 120 every time he's taken the field this season. Joel Rodriguez also helped out with an impressive 90 receiving yards.

The Indians may have come up short on the field last Friday night against Carthage... but they will never come up short in the hearts, in the community, or in the legacy they leave behind.

This team embodied grit, pride, belief, unity, and heart from the first kickoff to the last whistle. They showed the town of Sanger what it looks like to fight for each other, to play for something bigger than themselves, and to represent this community with class and passion.

THANK YOU, SENIORS — YOU LEFT A LEGACY.

This group set a new standard. They didn't just win games — they built culture. They gave this town something to rally behind, something to believe in, and something to be proud of.

Carthage's record is now 12-0. As for Sanger, they moved to 8-4 with that loss, which also ended their three-game winning streak. Carthage moves on to play Texarkana Pleasant Grove (11-1), who only has one loss to Kilgore 18-6. Carthage beat Kilgore 21-10 earlier in the season. They play at McKinney ISD Stadium at 2 p.m. on Friday, November 28.

Kelvin Edwards (0) runs for a touchdown against the Indians.

Running back Benny Smith (22) breaks lose for Carthage.

Santa is coming to town!

That time of year is right around the corner, and Santa will be making his way around Sanger on the fire truck!

He'll be spreading holiday cheer through neighborhoods December 7th–12th, with a make-up date on December 13th if needed.

On December 12th, Santa will be riding in his new sleigh — the new Ladder Truck! Because the new sleigh can't fit down cul-de-sacs, they are asking everyone who lives on one to meet Santa at the end of their street to wave hello.

This will affect neighborhoods in Sanger Circle and Sable Creek on day six of the route.

Stay tuned for route details, and come out to share some Christmas cheer with Santa and the Sanger Fire Department!

Santa tries to leave the station around 6 pm. Please note on larger routes they may leave around 5:45 pm.
