OBITUARIES...

John Edward Hope

July 8, 1944 - March 6, 2023

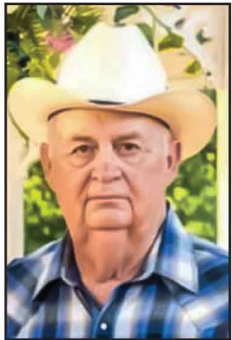

John Edward Hope of Sanger went to his heavenly home on Monday morning, March 6, 2023, surrounded by his family. The son of Wilburn and Audrey (Tester-man) Hope, he was born on July 8, 1944, in Cushing, OK.

He graduated from Drumwright High School and attended Oklahoma State University (OSU). He served his country in the United States Marine Corps during the Vietnam War.

John was one of two IT department managers with NCR (a subsidiary of AT&T), servicing the United States Postal Service for 39 years. His territory covered one-half of the United States and Guam.

On January 1, 2007, John married Rachel Lilley in Sanger, Texas. They made their home in Oklahoma and refurbished an older home John had previously bought for a retirement project, and after a few years, they moved back to Sanger. At age four, John's granddaughter Colby came to live with him and Rachel, and they raised her together.

John was a good-hearted man with many talents.

There was nothing he could not build, engineer, drive, or repair. But, although he was accomplished in many areas, John was a country boy at heart.

John is preceded in death by his parents and grandson Brantly Hope. He is survived by his wife, Rachel of Sanger; daughters Brenda Coats (Rick) of Cushing, OK, LeeAnn Barnes of Sanger, and Shelley Bradley (George) of Denison; sons Patrick Hope (Lorri) of Edmond, OK, Richard Hope of Ponca City OK, and Chuck Galbreath (Lori) of Sanger; a sister Vonnie Harris (Jim) of Wagoner, OK; ten grandchildren, Colby Hope, Mason Hope, Garrett Hope, Carter Hope, Jett Hope, Tre' McFarland, Travis McFarland, Leslie McFarland, Laura Barnes, Jamie Barnes, Joseph Doles, Lynsey Doles, Thomas Eutsler, Jake Galbreath, and Taylor Galbreath; and twelve great-grandchildren.

A visitation will be from 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm on Friday, March 10, 2023, at Ridin' For The Brand Cowboy Church, with funeral services at 3:00 pm. Pastor Lance Perry will officiate the services. John's grandsons are honorary pallbearers.

Coker Funeral Home in Sanger was in charge of arrangements.

Evelyn Orelia Smith

January 22, 1924 - March 2, 2023

Evelyn Orelia Smith was born on January 22, 1924 to Otto and Elma Reesing in Cranfills Gap, TX. She was confirmed at St. Olaf Lutheran Church and attended Cranfills Gap schools graduating in 1940 and then attending Clifton Junior College, graduating in 1942. She was called home on March 2, 2023.

After attending Texas Lutheran College, she left the Gap for the big city of Fort Worth in 1943 where she was employed by Kraft Cheese Co., in city sales. Later she was transferred to the company's district sales office in Dallas, then to the southwest division office in Garland.

She met her husband, Curtis Smith, while in Dallas, and they were married October 3, 1946. They had two children, Dan Smith of Kerrville and Dr. Diann Rozell Huber of Denton.

When her husband formed his own plumbing company, Evelyn was a member in the Association of Plumbing, Heating and Cooling Contractors. She became a member of the Women's Auxiliary, where she held several leadership roles, including president of the Dallas County Auxiliary and chairman of the by-laws revision committee and treasurer for four years with the National Auxiliary. She also served as the national director to the State of Texas.

In 1977, she and Curtis moved back to the Gap, Evelyn's birthplace, where she was a member for over 30 years at the First Baptist Church of the Gap. While in the Gap, Evelyn served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Cranfills Gap ISD. She also served on the Cranfills Gap City Council for two years.

Evelyn, Gannie as she was fondly called by many, was proud of her family and greatly enjoyed her 4 grandsons and 14 great grandchildren. They were the source of much joy to her as she continued to quilt baby quilts until her recent illness.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Curtis and her three siblings: Harlan Reesing, John Reesing and Martha Morgan. She is survived by her son Dan, her daughter Diann and the families of her four grandsons: Zach, Leanne, Bo, Abram, Jones and Thomas Rex Rozell of Argyle, Texas; Clay, Emily, Reveau, Calvin, Hannah, and Hazel Rozell of Sanger, Texas; Andrew, Heather, Clive, Benjamin, and Joseph Reesing Rozell of Denton, Texas; and Scott, Lacey, Michelle, Olivia, and Phineas Rozell of Fairfield, Connecticut; along with many great nephews and nieces.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Norwegian country church, The Rock Church, that Evelyn attended as a child and is the final resting place for her Norwegian family members. Donations may be made to St. Olaf Lutheran Church, 402 Meridian Street, Cranfills Gap, TX 76637. Additionally, donations may be made to First Baptist Church, Cranfills Gap, TX where Evelyn and Curtis served while living at the Gap.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at The Village Church in Denton, TX on Saturday, March 11 at 10:30 a.m. Please join with family in celebrating Gannie's life by wearing bright colors, especially red, that she so loved. Burial will be at Restland Memorial Park in Dallas later in the day.

Forms we typically help with are: W-2, 1099 INT and DIV, SS 1099, 1099-R, 1099-C, 1099-MISC, 1098-T 1095-A, capital gains, and others. There are other rules that make some returns "out of scope" for us, but most taxpayers with under $60,000 income we can help.

This service will continue on Saturdays through April 15. No appointments, just show up. If too many come we can refer to our larger facility in north Denton.

This program has a family income limit of $60,000 to quality; larger amounts need paid preparers. You should bring with you: photo ID for taxpayer and spouse (if joint), SS cards for taxpayer(s) and all children listed

Financial FOCUS

By Allen Chick,
Edward Jones

Now that we've put winter behind us — at least on the calendar — it's time for us to think about sprucing up our homes, inside and out. But it also may be time to do some financial spring cleaning.

Some of the same ideas involved in tidying up your home can also be used to help put your financial house in order. Here are a few suggestions:

Dust off your investment strategy. As you look around your home, you might find that many items — tables, desks, bookshelves, and computer and television screens — could benefit from a good dusting. And, once you've accomplished this, you'll get a clearer view of all these objects. Similarly, your investment strategy needs to be "dusted off" every so often, so you can see if it's still working to help you move toward your financial goals, such as a comfortable retirement. Over time, your personal circumstances and risk tolerance can change, and these changes may lead you to reexamine your future financial and investment decisions.

De-clutter your portfolio. If you took a survey of your home, would you find duplicates or even triplicates of some things — brooms, vacuum cleaners, toasters, and so on? If so, it may be time to do some de-cluttering. And the same could be true of your portfolio — you might have several identical, or substantially identical, investments taking up space. If so, you might want to replace these redundancies with investments that can improve your diversification. While diversification can't guarantee profits or protect against losses in a declining market, it may help reduce the impact of market volatility on your holdings.

Time for financial 'spring cleaning'

Get organized. If your closets are overstuffed, with clothes and miscellaneous items crammed on shelves and the floor, you may well have trouble finding what you're looking for — but with a little straightening up, your searches will become much easier. And when you're trying to locate financial documents, such as investment statements or insurance policies, you'll also benefit from having everything organized in one central location. Even if you get most of these documents online, you can save what you need and keep them in a file on your desktop, laptop or tablet. (And it's also a good idea to tell your spouse, adult child or another close relative how these documents can be accessed, just in case something happens to you.)

Protect yourself from dangers. If you look around your garage, shed or other storage area, you may well find some objects — such as gardening tools, paint thinners, engine fluids and leaning ladders — that could be dangerous if they aren't stored properly. As part of your spring cleaning, you'll want to remove these hazards to safeguard yourself and your family. But have you addressed the various financial risks that could threaten your loved ones? For example, if something were to happen to you, could your family members maintain their lifestyle? Could your children still go to college? To guard against this risk, you may want to discuss protection strategies with a financial professional.

Spring cleaning can pay off — in a cleaner, safer home environment and in helping ensure your financial strategy continues to work hard for you.
